The history of our country, says the New York Tribune, for the last six years, is a record of successive Demopratic predictions steadily falsified by events. Since the pro-Slavery party 'talfilled its own prophecy by inaugursating the Rebellion, it has never failed to anticipate and foresee exactly what did not come to pass.

It first proclaimed that any attempt its menaces.

It insisted that the Slaveholders' has been atterly demolished by down right hard knocks.
