THE BEAVER ARGUS.

November 14th, 1866.

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

☞ Wm. Bingham, Jr., 54 Fifth st., Pittsburg, is the authorized agent for the Argus in that city.

☞ Young men and women who expect to engage in teaching, should spend at least one term at the State Normal School, Edinboro.

☞ Wm. D. Boas, Esq., a well-known citizen of Harrisburg, has assumed the duties of publisher of the Patriot and Union.

☞ A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Gazette urges Hon. Samuel A. Purviance for United States Senator. He has since declined.

Look Out for Them.—Counterfeit greenbacks of the denomination of two dollars are in circulation. They are poorly executed, and experienced eyes can easily detect them.

☞ Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column in which a house and lot in Beaver is offered for sale. This property is in a good locality, and persons wishing to purchase here should give it their attention.

☞ The Rev. R. Audley Browne, D. D., State Senator, has been elected President of Westminster College, located at New Wilmington, in Lawrence county, and under the care of the United Presbyterian Church.

Died.—The young man, Samuel Johnson, of whom we spoke last week as having accidentally shot himself in Rochester, a few days before, died on Thursday morning last. He is represented as having been a very promising young man.

Fingers Sawed Off.—A man named Mitchell, of New Brighton, had the fingers of one of his hands cut off by a circular saw at that place, on Tuesday of last week. Dr. Simpson dressed the wound.

Sorghum.—We are under many obligations to Benj. Todd, Esq., of Industry, for a gallon of Sorghum, manufactured by himself. It is decidedly the best sorghum we have seen this year. Mr. Todd, we understand, has produced about one thousand gallons of it this season.

Accident in a Coal Bank.—Some days ago as Mr. J. C. Molter, of Bridgewater, who is working a coal bank on M'Kinley's Run, was passing into his bank on one of his cars, it ran off the track, throwing Mr. M. out and dislocating his left shoulder. Dr. Levis was called in, and put the arm to its proper place again.

Base Ball.—The "Independent" club, of Salem, O., and the "Rochester," of Rochester, Pa., played a game of Base Ball, on the grounds of the latter, on Friday last, in which the Salem boys came off second best. The score was—Independent, 31; Rochester, 41.

Literary Entertainment.—The literary entertainment given in the M. E. Church, in this place, by Prof. Alcott, on Tuesday evening of last week, was but thinly attended, and in addition to this we hear that the boys were quite unruly. Competent judges, who were present on the occasion, unite in saying that under favorable circumstances the Prof.'s readings would have been entertaining.

Teachers' Institute.—The Teachers' Institute of this place will be held in the Public School building, on Thursday evening, the 15th. Order of exercises: Essay—Miss M'Gaffick; Class Drill—Miss Woodrow; Periodical—Miss Savage; Lecture—D. P. Lowary—subject—Reciprocal duties of patrons and teachers.

Postponed.—We are requested by Prof. J. I. Reed, the county school superintendent, to say that, owing to his being one of the jurors at our present term of Court, he will be unable to attend at Hookstown on the 15th, 16th and 17th of November, the time at which the Institute was to meet at that place. The meeting of the Institute is therefore postponed till the 22d, 23d and 24th of this month. Teachers and all others interested will please take notice.

Trustees Elected.—At a recent meeting of the stockholders of "Beaver Seminary and Institute," the following named persons were chosen Trustees for the ensuing year: Daniel Agnew, Benj. Adams, Jno. Barclay, M. Weyand, Ross Forward, D. L. Imbrie, Rev. D. P. Lowary, H. Hice, Thos. M'Creery, Rev. J. F. Bravo, J. W. F. White, Hon. Chas. Hare, Jno. Bishop, Cyrus Clarke, W. Vankirk.

The new Board subsequently was organized as follows, viz: President—Hon. D. Agnew; Treasurer—Hon. B. Adams; Secretary—M. Weyand.

Thanksgiving Day.—The President of the United States, as well as most of the Governors of the several States, including Governor Curtin, have appointed Thursday, the 29th of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise. The editor of the Local begs "to be excused from saying prayers on that day."—We move that he be excused; but we cannot help thinking it a little strange that he is "going back" on Andy Johnson so soon. Some of Andy's recent appointments evidently don't rest easy on the Local's stomach! If they did, this fling at the Presidential proclamation would not have been made. As things stand now, we suspect that in about two weeks from date the Local and its editor will both be arrayed against "my policy." But won't the President wince then?

A Challenge.—The editor of the Local sends us a challenge to compare subscription books with him, and offers to bet his office against ours that he has a larger circulation than we have. When the editor of the Local convinces us that he is the owner of the office which he proposes to transfer, or satisfies us that he has any money interest in its material, then we will give his proposition some attention. "At present writing," we are laboring under the conviction that his title to the Local office is just about as "good and sufficient" as was Satan's title to the kingdoms of the world, when he promised the Savior of the world, when he was seeking to tempt Him. The Local's proposition, then, substantially means—"Heads I win—tails you lose." We are not a betting man, but if we were, that is not the kind of betting we would do.

A Strange Story.—Alvin C. Temple and Robert S. Steinway, both of the city of New York, came into the neighborhood of Burning Springs, West Virginia, a couple of weeks ago. They intended trying their luck in the developement of oil in that vicinity, and accordingly had been looking around for a favorable spot for some days. During one of these searches, Steinway returned to his boarding house without Temple, and giving no satisfactory account of his friend's absence, he was arrested on suspicion of having murdered him, and is now in the jail at Parkersburg. Steinway since says that himself and Temple, while proceeding with their explorations in the neighborhood of Burning Springs, came across a large opening in the rocks, and both entering, they found a small lake, filled, as Steinway alleges, with oil. Accidentally, Temple fell into this lake and was seen no more. Steinway made his way out, and thinking that his friend was drowned, and beyond assistance, his first step was to procure a lease of the lot of ground on which he found the lake, which he did. About the time he had this accomplished, and having still given no satisfactory account of his friend's whereabouts, he was taken into custody by the officers of the law, as above stated, and committed to jail. The story appears to be improbable, and it will very likely be ascertained in due course of time that Temple will turn up somewhere else, and Steinway shown to be insane.

Centenary Sermon.—On Sunday last the Rev. Mr. Horner, of the Bridgewater M. E. Church, preached a Centenary Sermon in the M. E. Church of this place, which was regarded by all as a very fine effort—His review of Methodism in the United States, replete as it was with statistical information concerning all of the churches in this country, was quite interesting, and attracted the undivided attention of all who had the good fortune to hear it. After the sermon a Centenary collection was taken up, which amounted in the aggregate to $425 00—$365 00 of which was by general consent appropriated to the completion of the M. E. Parsonage of this place.

Robbery.—The Tuscarawas (O.) Advocate, of the 8th inst, says: We regret exceedingly to learn that our fellow townsman, C. B. Harvey, was robbed on Monday night at Island Run of $800. It appears that he was going from the New Philadelphia well to the Hotel, about nine o'clock at night, and as he was crossing a little stream, three men emerged from a place of concealment, one of whom struck him a severe blow on the breast, which felled him to the ground, and then jumped upon him and took him by the throat. As he gasped for breath the ruffian filled his mouth with mud. Another took his pocketbook, and the third attempted to take his watch, but did not succeed in getting it.

Removal.—Messrs. Wilson & Stewart, of Rochester, have removed their extensive stock of Boots and Shoes to the room, on the Diamond, formerly occupied by Messrs. Brehm & Nelson as Druggists. Their present locality is an excellent one, and we learn that they are doing a very fine business.

☞ Ice-creepers, &c., for sale at Wilson & Stewart's, Rochester, Pa.

That Meteoric Shower.—An exchange says: Is has not been reduced to certainty, we believe, that the above heavenly display is to come off at all, but an impression has gone abroad that it will take place between the 12th and 16th of the present month. Everybody insists that it will be a grand affair, and it is to be regretted that the precise date of the exhibition has not been determined. It is proposed, we are informed, to instruct the police on duty to ring all the public bells in the city when the startling phenomenon shall be first observed. The idea is not a bad one. The last "falling of the stars" occurred in the year 1833, commenced at 11 o'clock and subsided at 3 o'clock next morning. It was a grand sight to behold.

☞ Arctic, Buffalo, and Gum overshoes, for sale at Wilson & Stewart's, Rochester, Pa.

Rev. J. D. Knox.—Rev. J. D. Knox, now of Topeka, Kansas, but formerly of this locality, and well known to many of our citizens, has been nominated as County Superintendent of Instruction, by the Union party of his county. The Topeka Leader expresses gratification at this, and says "he will fill the office creditably."

☞ Trunks, for sale at Wilson & Stewart's, Rochester, Pa.

☞ The Harrisburg Telegraph demands the impeachment of Judge Fisher, of York county, for knowingly granting certificates of naturalization contrary to law.

Court.—Court opened in this place on Monday last, Hon. B. B. Chamberlin, and Hons Duff and Lawrence, all present. The attendance of persons is tolerably large. On Monday, after the Grand Jury was sworn and the charge of the Court given it, and the Jurors sent out, the trial of the Com. vs. Jas. H. Odell, for assault and battery, was taken up, and during the afternoon and evening the testimony for the prosecution and defense were both taken. On Tuesday morning the arguments were heard and the case submitted to the Jury.

☞ Skates, for sale at Wilson & Stewart's, Rochester, Pa.

Recruiting.—The following is a correct estimate of the number of general service recruits enlisted in those States where recruiting stations are located, from July 1 to October 1, 1866 In Philadelphia, for some time, and in New York city and vicinity, during the month of August, recruiting was entirely suspended:

Enlisted in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia	1292
Enlisted in States west of Pennsylvania	1528
Enlisted in New Jersey	254
Enlisted New York city and State	1448
Enlisted in New England States	279
Total	4801

No Court Next Week.—On Monday last notice was given by the Court that the present term would close on Saturday, the 17th. Jurors for next week and all others interested were therefore notified that they need not appear at that time.

Negro Suffrage — Letter from Judge Reagan, of Texas.

New York, October 9.—Judge Reagan, of Texas, a member of the Cabinet of Jeff. Davis, has written a letter to Gov. Throckmorton, in which he urges the people of Texas to give suffrage to the negroes on the same terms as it is given to the whites. He warns the people of the State that the North is in earnest in demanding suffrage for the blacks, and says that those who oppose negro suffrage in this qualified form elect to force universal negro suffrage on the country, and ought to be and will be held responsible by our people for it when it comes; and they ought no longer to be allowed to shield themselves under pretended ignorance from the consequences of such criminal demagoguery.

Bitter experience forces the Union men of Maryland to the conviction at which their brethren of Louisiana arrived through a bloody test—that Impartial Suffrage is the only defense of the loyal, and the only cure for the Rebel, in the south. The issue, so long evaded and postponed, has ripened in Maryland through the heat of a contest won at the expense of those who fought to save the State which others attempted to destroy. They can now well afford to set the justice of Impartial Suffrage against the wrong of this bad mishap; we doubt if anything but defeat would have taught them, or any other large class of men in the South, the lesson. But it would be strange if the men of Maryland could not advance to the same views which even Judge Reagan of Texas ex Secretary of the Confederacy, has had the sagacity to announce.—N. Y. Tribune

A Significant Appointment.—Gen. Sheridan has assigned Gen J. A. Mower to the command of the military district of Louisiana. Gen. Mower is known to the public not only from his gallant service during the war, but as one of the officers appointed to investigate the causes of the massacre at New Orleans, and one of the signers of the report which has been so obnoxious to the President and his supporters.

☞ The State of Oregon, one of the youngest in the Union, has more public schools (443) than South Carolina, one of the original thirteen States.—This is the difference between a people ruled by free instead of slavery institutions.

Ground has been surveyed for a new Executive Mansion at Washington. It is to be surroundod by a National Park of some 300 acres—to be located on 14th street, about two miles from the city.

The Swiss Bell-Ringers Coming to New Brighton and Rochester.—We copy the following extracts from various religious papers complimentary to the Alleghanians, Vocalists and Bell Players, who returned from their European tour a few weeks since, and are to appear at New Brighton on Monday, November 19th, and at Rochester, Tuesday, November 20th:

Their concerts are very popular, and always attended by our best citizens, including the clergy of all denominations.

"The Christian World," London, England, January 1866, says,—"No description could convey an adequate idea of the charming pathos of this great musical feast."

"The Congregationalist," (Scotland,) says,—"They have not only astonished, but won the admiration of all our lovers of soul stirring music."

The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon says,—"No human tongue could discourse more mellifluous music."

"The Methodist" (N. Y.) says,—"They sing music of the heart."

"The Christian Advocate" says,—"They are ministers of good, speaking to the great heart of humanity in soothing strains of beauty."

Pamphlet Laws.

The Pamphlet Laws for 1866 have been received at the Prothonotary's office, and are ready for delivery to those entitled to the same.

Great Distribution

BY THE

American Jewelry Association.

Depots: 38 & 39 Nassau, 54 & 56 Liberty St.,

NEW YORK CITY

Of Rosewood Pianos and Melodeons, Fine Oil Paintings, Engravings, Silver Ware, Gold and Silver Watches, and Elegant Jewelry, consisting of Diamond Pins, Diamond Rings, Gold Bracelets, Coral, Florentine, Mosaic, Jet, Lava, and Cameo Ladies' Sets, Gold Pens, with Gold and Silver Extension Holders, Sleeve Buttons, Sets of Studs, Vest and Neck Chains, Plain and Chased Gold Chains, &c., &c., &c., valued at which they need not pay until it is known what is drawn and its value.

THE AMERICAN JEWELERS' ASSOCIATION calls your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German War and recent disastrous financial crisis in England, has caused the failure of a large number of Jewelry Houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these Bankrupt Goods, at such extremely low prices, that we can afford to send away Finer Goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes than any other establishment doing a similar business. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and we respectfully sollcit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the American Jewelers' Association, and have kindly allowed the use of their names:

Charles J. Hunter, Esq., Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., Piano, value $800; Miss. Anna G. Yates, 52 St. Mark's Place, N. Y., Sewing Machine, value $75; Brig. Gen. L. L. Hanson, U. S. Vols., Nashville, Tenn., Silver Tea Set, value $150; Miss Emma Hunter, 68 Front St., Harrisburg, Pa., Sewing Machine, value $60; Lieut Col. Walter Chittenden, Quartermaster, Louisville, Kentucky, Gold Watch, value 150; Wm. S. Haines, 45 King St., Charleston, S. C., Silver Watch, value $50; Alexander Johnson, Esq., Editor Muskateer Pioneer, Muskateer, Minn., Ladies' Enameled Wateh, value $150; Samuel Lee, Esq., President Colorado and Red Bank Mining Company, San Francisco, Cal., Melodeon, value $200; Aaron S. Long, Esq., Principal Elkhart Collegiate Institute, Elkhart, N. J., Diamond Pin, value $200, R. M. Longstreet, Montgomery, Ala., Music Box, value $75; Rev. Isaac Van Duzer, Albany, N. Y., Gold Lined Dining Set, value $300; Miss Flora Lucuguer, Dayton, Ohio, Pianoforte, value $400, and Diamond Pin, value $175.

Many names could be placed on the List, but we publish no names without permission. Our patrons are desired to send United States currency when it is convenient.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

Unequalled inducements offered to Ladies and Gents who will act as such. Our descriptive circulars will be sent on application.

Distributions are made in the following manner:—Certificates naming each article and its value are placed in sealed envelopes, which are well mixed. One of these envelopes containing the Certificate or Order for some article, will be delivered at our office, or sent by mail to any address, without regard to choice, on receipt of 25 cents.

On receiving the certificate the purchaser will see what article it draws, and its value, and can then send One Dollar, and receive the article named, or can choose any other one article on our list of the same value.

Purchasers of our Sealed Envelopes, may, in this manner, obtain an article worth from one to five hundred dollars.

Long letters are unnecessary. Have the kindness to write plain directions, and in choosing different articles from those drawn, mention the style desired.

☞ Orders for Sealed Envelopes must in every case be accompanied with the cash, with the name of the person sending, and Town, County and State plainly written.

Letters should be addressed to the Managers, as follows:

SHERMAN, WATSON & CO.,
37 & 39 Nassau st., New York City.
