

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

MR. BRIDGEMAN, JR., 54 Fifth st., Pittsburg, is the authorized agent for the Argus in that city.

Bridal presents, toys, variety goods of all patterns, at Mulheim's, Bridgewater, Pa.

The Beaver Academy, now, under the successful management of R. T. Taylor, advertises in another column, to open the first of the year. Let our farmers come in and spend the winter in school. Money expended for an education is always well invested.

DECLINES.—Rev. R. A. Brown, State Senator of the Lawrence district, was some time ago tendered the Presidency of the Westminster College, but declines the position. The names of Rev. W. J. Reed, of Pittsburg, and R. B. Ewing, of Xenia, Ohio, are now mentioned in connection with the place.

THE ROUNDHEADS.—At the reunion of the Roundhead regiment at New Castle, Pa., on the 29th of November, Gen. Cameron and Representative Lawrence were in attendance, and both made speeches on the occasion.

Bridal presents, toys, variety goods of all patterns, at Mulheim's, Bridgewater, Pa.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. W. Wallace, of New Castle, formerly member of Congress from this District, was in town on Thursday of last week. Mr. W. has resumed the practice of medicine in Lawrence county, and came hither on a professional visit. He looks as hearty and talks as buoyant as when we knew him some twelve or fifteen years ago.

HON. CHOLERA.—This disease is prevailing to some extent among the swine in this locality, and butchers should be on the look out for it. We learn that our townsman John Aughey, Esq., lost two fine hogs last week in consequence of the disorder.

IMPROVEMENT.—Passing up street on Saturday we were agreeably surprised at finding a neat new board walk extending from the residence of Robert Imbrie, Esq., to the upper Female Seminary. As the day had been very wet, and the streets were in a very muddy condition, we could all the better appreciate the enterprise of Messrs. Piersol, Wilson and Hance, under whose auspices this walk has been laid.

REPAIRING A BRIDGE.—The bridge over the Big Beaver river, between Bridgewater and Rochester, is being overhauled, and the ways on both sides are now relaid with entirely new flooring. While the stockholders have their hands, we would suggest that a little attention to the foot way would not come amiss.

A VETERAN PRINTER.—John Saxton, Esq., of the Canton (O.) Repository, who is now in his 70th year, set type on the President's Message last Monday night a week ago, from eight o'clock till midnight, putting up within that time, three thousand five hundred ems. There are but few men of that age living, who could accomplish so much.

REWARD OFFERED.—The relatives of Thos. Middleton, of Fallston, offer a reward of one hundred dollars for the recovery of his body, who is supposed to have been drowned or drowned in the vicinity of the mouth of Brady's Run, in this county. He disappeared on the night of the 15th of November.

STILL A MYSTERY.—We learn from the Washington Reporter that no clue has yet been obtained in relation to the robbery of the Treasurer's office in that county. The same may also still be shrouded in mystery in this county. It is a great pity that both of these sets of robbers (if there were two) are still at large, and in all probability will go unpunished.

PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL.—The prospectus of the Pittsburgh Commercial appears in our paper to-day. The Commercial is the largest daily in Pennsylvania, and contains the very latest and most authentic news from all quarters of the country. In this vicinity, it is useless to speak of its merits, for nearly every person takes and reads it daily.

JUDGE ACHESON SWORN IN.—We learn from the Washington (Pa.) Reporter of Dec. 5th, that Judge Acheson, of this Judicial District, was sworn to discharge the duties of the office to which he was recently elected, on the Monday preceding. Both of his associates were sworn in at the same time, after which the regular business of the December term began.

SEMINARY BUILDING SOLD.—Prof. R. T. Taylor, who some time ago purchased the Seminary building at the upper end of town, and has since used it in connection with the Beaver Female Seminary, sold it a few days ago to Rev. Dr. McLean, of the U. P. Church of this place. We presume the intention of the purchaser is to again use the building for separate educational purposes.

EXAMINATION.—The examination of the Students of the Beaver Female Seminary and Musical Institute commences this morning (the 12th) at 9 A. M., and will continue during the forenoon, and also to-morrow in the forenoon. In the afternoon of Thursday the Students of the Academy will undergo a public examination. In the evening there will be a concert in the Seminary Hall, which will no doubt be an interesting affair, as we understand quite a number of solo players will be in attendance on the occasion, and that the services of a first class violinist have been procured. All lovers of good music should attend and enjoy themselves.

AN EXTENSIVE SOAP MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENT.—While in Rochester a few days ago, we called in to see some old friends from Ohio, who are engaged in the manufacture of a good article of soap in that village. Their establishment is near the river wharf and they make and get ready for market from twelve to fifteen hundred dollars' worth of their product per week. Their article is of a superior quality, and is sold from three to five cents per pound cheaper than the celebrated Rabbit soap. The name of the firm is Oliver, Noy & Co., and they will always be found at the worthy gentlemen.

STRIPPED NEWSPAPER FILES.—A little boy named Chapp, employed in the Dispatch office in Pittsburg, sought and succeeded in making some money a short time ago, by tearing up and selling to a paper warhorse, about forty volumes of the Congressional Globe. He next made a raid on the bound volumes of the Dispatch, which covered a period of fourteen years, and after tearing off the covers, sold them for waste paper. As these were the only files which the proprietors of the Dispatch had of their own paper, the loss to them in one which can never be repaired. The lad was arrested, confessed his crime, and we have no doubt will be severely punished.

"Close Shooting."—The Local of last week requested us to copy from it an advertisement headed "Farm for Sale." We comply with the request this week, but in a corrected form, as we are quite sure that Mr. Wilson wants his sale to take place in the forenoon, and not at ten o'clock at night, as the Local has it. Neither does our almanac inform us that the 21st of December comes on Wednesday! Friday is the 21st. The Local, if not a cheap advertising medium, is evidently a blundering one. But as this is about as close to the mark as the Local ever shoots, we would not have pointed it out, were we not desirous of preventing the public from being misled on account of its stupidity.

A COLD SNAP.—On Monday quite a snow storm visited this locality, and on Tuesday morning we had the coldest weather of the season—the thermometer standing at 18 degrees below zero. Throughout the day yesterday it was also quite cold and overcast, were eagerly "gobbled" up, and big fires were in active demand.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute of this place, had a pleasant and profitable meeting on Thursday evening last, and adjourned to meet on Thursday evening, the 20th of December. A committee of three gentlemen has been appointed to keep order at the next meeting, and the suspicion is generally entertained that a few unruly boys will either behave themselves on that occasion or find themselves in the custody of Sheriff Littell for a night or two at least.

SAB OCCURENCE AT OIL CITY.—On Sunday night the 2d, as the people were returning from the several churches in Oil City, the city of fire was raised, and it was soon discovered that the residence of an Irishman, named Donovan, was on fire. Donovan jumped out of the window, with his son in his arms, and thus escaped. But his father-in-law, aged nearly one hundred years, and his youngest child, were not so fortunate, as both perished in the flames. Mrs. D. was not at home when the fire broke out, but returned in time to see her child and father roll from the house charred corpses. Donovan had been an industrious man, and had accumulated $1,700, which was in the house at the time, and consumed. The fire is supposed to have originated by the upsetting of a lamp which was burning, by a cat.

THE PORK MARKET.—The Pittsburgh Gazette of Thursday last says: The transactions in Hogs have been remarkably heavy this week, the sales, including Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and to-day up to eleven o'clock, reaching nine thousand four hundred and fifty-two. As compared with last week, prices have fallen, the great bulk of the market ranging from 5 1/2 to 6 cents, gross—some few lots of "picked" Hogs bringing 6 1/2 to 6 3/4, one lot of 300. One of our packing houses, that of Hinbaugh & Co., commenced buying this week, having thus far purchased about one thousand head, at prices ranging from 5.80 to 6.05. Of the sales for shipment, the bulk were for Philadelphia and New York, though we believe a few car loads were forwarded to Baltimore.

MURDER IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.—On Tuesday night, 4th inst., about ten o'clock, a most shocking murder was committed in Hopewell township, Washington county, the victim being Robert W. Dinmore, a wealthy farmer of that township, residing some six miles north of Washington borough. Mr. Dinmore was just retiring to bed, when he was called to the door by a knock, and on opening it, two persons, apparently black, told him that the boys were wanted to go to Miller's, a neighbor's, as there was sickness there. Dinmore informed them that he had no boys, when they stated it was him they wanted, and pushed into the house, when a scuffle ensued. Dinmore wrested a revolver from one of them, which the villain soon recovered. Dinmore then rapidly passed through the kitchen and bedroom to the hall, for the apparent purpose of getting a cane or club, and was followed by the men. As they passed through the bedroom, Mrs. Dinmore begged them not to shoot her, and her voice reaching Mr. Dinmore, he turned in the hall, and was again confronted by the murderers, who shot at him twice; both balls entering his breast, and producing wounds from which he died between two and three hours afterwards. After he had fallen one of them struck him with a chair. The deceased was fifty-five years of age, and a very worthy citizen.

During the recontrae the heel of the boot of one of the murderers was torn off and left at the scene of the murder. Subsequently a suspicion attached to a man named Robert Fogle, who was taken into custody; and in connection with other circumstances, it was found that a heel from one of his boots was missing, and when measured, it was ascertained that the heel found so exactly fitted the place of the missing one, that no doubts were longer entertained of Fogle's guilt. After taking him to jail, he confessed the commission of the crime, and alleged that William Montgomery, a son of Hon. William Montgomery, of that county, was his accomplice, and that the robbery of Mr. Dinmore was their only purpose. Montgomery was also soon after arrested, and both are now in the jail of Washington county.

Fogle is a man of bad character, and was in the army for some time, where he served with credit, it is said, but little credit. Since his discharge he has been living with Hon. Wm. Montgomery.

COLLECTOR OF TAXES.—Mr. F. Reader, Deputy collector of this District, was in town yesterday collecting United States taxes. Quite a number of our money making citizens paid their respects, likewise a little of their cash, to him while in the town.

A man named King, last week introduced himself as John Boswell, a well known citizen of New Brighton, at the Phoenix Brewery in Pittsburg, and obtained $15.

Another Victim of the War

FRANKFORT, SPAIN, Dec. 9th, 1866.
James D. Caldwell, son of Mary Caldwell, widow, now Mrs. Bradley, departed this life Sabbath evening, November 14th, 1866, in the village of Frankfort, Beaver county, Pa. The deceased was born in Paris, Washington county, Pa., October 2d, 1835. After serving three months in a company raised in West Virginia, to answer to the President's first call, he emigrated to Illinois, and there enlisted for three years in company I, of the 77th Volunteer Infantry, and served the three years as first sergeant of the company. In consequence of exposure to rain and the dews of the night in Tennessee and Alabama, he was taken with acute dysentery in the fall of 1864, and this ailment resulted in consumption and death. He was above the ordinary height, of goodly appearance, kindly disposition and gentle manners. He carried his Bible in all his marches, and it is fondly hoped that he is gone to that better country where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest. How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished! The slain of the terrible rebellion will not be fully known till the great roll-call.
W. M. McELVEE.
