

THE BEAVER BRIDGE LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Wm. BIRMAN, Jr., of Fifth st., Pittsburg, is the authorized agent for the 'Aadts' in that city.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS The attention of the public is directed to the following new advertisements which appear for the first time in the 'Beaver Bridge'...

REPAIRED AND REPAIRED.—The building occupied by I. J. Westwick, of New Brighton, is being enlarged and repaired in a manner creditable to the occupants.

Accidents.—One day last week, while a son, aged about fifteen years, of Mr. Geo. Engle, of Brighton township, was leading a colt to water, the animal slipped and fell upon the boy, injuring him quite severely.

Furs, Furs, Furs, at Gealy's, cheaper than any other place in Beaver county.

Samuel J. Blackmer, formerly of this county, and favorably known as an accommodating business man, is still offering large lots of hats, caps and ladies' furs, at reasonable rates.

REPAIRING BARBERS.—The Toll Bridge across Beaver river, connecting Fallston and New Brighton, has recently been repaired and newly refitted.

Union Co-operative Store.—A company is doing business in New Brighton on the Union Co-operative system, and the project is said to be working quite successfully.

200 pairs of skates, just received, and for sale, very cheap, at the Boot & Shoe store of Wilson & Stewart, Diamond, Rochester, Pa.

Washington County does not enjoy the enviable moral reputation at the present time. One of her citizens is now in the jail of this county for murder.

FINALLY COMMITTED.—The coroner's inquest announced to investigate the facts pertaining to the killing of Robert W. Dimsdale, having disassembled as young Montgomery's participation in the homicide, on Thursday afternoon Wm. Dimsdale, brother of the deceased, appeared before his Honor Judge Ackerson and made information, charging both Roger and Montgomery with the killing.

A SENSICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE.—A few days ago, while Sheriff Little, or some one of his assistants, were renovating a cell that is in common use by the prisoners, a vial of acid, such as is used in destroying iron, was discovered in a secreted in it, which was no doubt placed there by some one of the inmates.

ROCHESTER ITEMS.—A correspondent sends us the following: Rochester has been enjoying a treat in the shape of a series of lectures by Dr. Patnam, on "Physical Education."

For Holiday presents, call at Gealy's. THE ATLANTIC FOR JANUARY.—The Atlantic Monthly enters on its nineteenth volume, with an array of distinguished names and sterling articles that promise well for the coming year.

Don't fail to call and see Gealy's Furs. IMPROVEMENTS IN NEW BRIGHTON.—A recent visit to New Brighton furnished evidence of the spirit of enterprise and improvement among the citizens.

Mr. Greib has made a very nice brick addition to his coloring establishment, south side of Main street.

MARRIED.—On the 11th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. S. G. Clark, of Salem, Ohio, Dr. A. C. Feltner, of Falmouth, O., to Miss Bertha Young, of Falmouth, O.

Attention is directed to the advertisement, in another column, of Henry Feicht, Jr., who has been appointed as the sole and exclusive agent for the sale of the 'Beaver Bridge' in this county.

Flour per bushel $1.10 Dried Apples per bushel $1.00 Wheat per bushel $1.00 Corn per bushel $1.00 Potatoes per bushel $1.00

IDENTIFIED.—The skiff we referred to last week as having been claimed by the two men brought to jail here, and which was supposed to have been stolen by them at Pittsburgh, now turns out to be the property of Mr. Joseph McMahon of Vanport, of whom it was taken the night before the parties were arrested.

ROCHESTER ITEMS.—A correspondent sends us the following: Rochester has been enjoying a treat in the shape of a series of lectures by Dr. Patnam, on "Physical Education."

By the way, speaking of Nelson Hall, it may be said to have become one of the "institutions" of the place.

Down to zero.—Last Thursday night was decidedly the coldest night of the season.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—The New Castle papers are filled with the testimony on the trial of the Commonwealth vs. William Alexander, for the murder of Antonio Fisher.

New Woolen Factory.—The large stone Woolen Factory of Wilds, Shields & Company, has just been completed in New Brighton.

Zephyr Kull Shaw, a large assortment, at a great bargain, at Gealy's.
