

W. WYLAND. February 13th, 1867.

A Bubble Pricked.

The editor of the La Crosse Wis. Democrat is a noisy, coarse-mouthed, irrepressible and disloyal politician. He thinks it shows ability to make attacks upon prominent men...

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune.

Sir: May I ask you to stamp a forgery? An announcement is going the rounds of the papers that I have brought a suit against one Pomeroy...

Impeaching Presidents.

The present attempt to impeach the highest officer of the Government is not the only one of the kind that has been made. In January, 1843, John M. Botta, then a member of Congress...

Within the past few weeks, the Radicals have made two changes in the Beaver Postoffice. First, they removed Miss Maggie Anderson and had Miss Serinda McGaffick appointed as Postmistress.

Nearly every word of this is false. Miss Anderson tendered her resignation months before it was accepted, and not only had there been no fault found with her as an officer, but every "radical" in the town, so far as we are advised, regretted the step she had taken in asking to be relieved of her official duties.

The report of Thomas H. Burrows, State Superintendent of the Soldiers Orphans has just been published, and contains many interesting facts. During the past year four new schools have been established, and the number of pupils admitted during the year is 1,375, and the total number of scholars on the 1st of December was 2,658, of which 1,391 were boys and 1,067 girls.

The Pending Jury Bill.

Most of the readers of the Argus will recollect that Governor Curtin, in his last message to the Legislature, recommended the passage of an act authorizing the election of two Jury Commissioners in each county, to be selected as Inspectors of Elections are now chosen.

To carry into effect the Governor's suggestion, a bill has been read in the Senate which provides that the qualified voters of each county shall, at the next general election, choose two persons to serve as Jury Commissioners for three years following their election, and the manner of choosing will result in one of these being taken from each of the two political parties. Thus selected, they will meet thirty days before the first term of the Court of Common Pleas in each year, and proceed to designate, alternately, the names of persons who shall serve as jurors in the several courts for that year.

Gubernatorial Pardons.

That the pardoning power has been much abused in Pennsylvania, is very apparent. Criminals of the very worst character have been caught, tried, convicted and sent to the Penitentiary, and then, through Executive clemency, have been turned loose to begin anew their infamous crimes, in perhaps, the same community that had suffered at their hands, and brought them to punishment before. Not only has this condition of things existed within the past few years, but it has extended back for a period of eight or ten Gubernatorial terms. Under these circumstances, we hail with pleasure the announcement that Governor Geary has put his "foot down," and that during his term the pardoning power will be used with extreme caution.

Woman's Voting in New Jersey.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune. Six Mrs. Stanton in her address before the Legislative Committee on Woman's Suffrage, is reported in your paper of the 23rd inst., as follows: "From a recent examination by Lucy Stone of the archives of the State of New Jersey, we learn that owing to a negro exercised the right of suffrage in that State 31 years—from 1776 to 1807—when 'white males' amended the Constitution and arbitrarily assumed the reins of Government."

The fact is, the Constitution adopted in 1776, which secured suffrage to "all inhabitants," &c., remained unchanged in this particular till 1844. But in 1807 a Legislature elected by universal suffrage, violated the Constitution by enacting a law which prohibited, under penalty, any but white male citizens from exercising the franchise. This act was a crime which could never have been committed against white men.

The Harrisburg Telegraph Urges the Election of Bon Wade to the Presidency of the United States.

The Harrisburg Telegraph urges the election of Bon Wade to the Presidency of the United States before that body adjourns on the 4th of March. While there are many other men in the Senate who would doubtless make good presidents, we believe there is none in it whose selection would be so well received or so heartily approved by the loyalists of the country as would that of sturdy and fearless Bon Wade of Ohio.

The New Programme.

The President has been in consultation with the leading members of the Southern States, and the result of their air-cast is a new programme of reconstruction, as proposed by the late Congress and ratified by the people.

Truth Vindicated.

The copperhead papers of the country, after adding to all kinds of reckless charges against Gen. Cameron, our best officer, wind up their abuse by saying that he was "forced" out of his Cabinet. The following correspondence ought to be satisfactory to every candid person on that point.

Washington, Jan. 11, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—Through I have said nothing, hitherto, in response to your wish, expressed long since, to resign your seat in the Cabinet, I have not been unmindful of it. I have not been unwilling to consent to a change at a time and under circumstances which might give occasion to misconception, and unable, till now, to see how such misconception could be avoided.

The Case of Hon. C. V. Culver.

The Philadelphia Telegraph, commenting on the acquittal of this gentleman, as the result of the late trial at Franklin, says: "While public feeling, immediately after the failure of Culver, Penn. & Co., ran high against him, yet time has allowed the passion to cool, and he who was first reviled as a scoundrel, has shown himself only an unfortunate gentleman."
