day Davis and Hancock passed along the street, side by side in the same carriage.-Could "flunkeyism" further go?

The Democratic State Convention, which me, at Harrisburg last week treated the President about as "shabbily" as it well could. It not only did not pass a resolution endorsing his administration, but it studiously avoided mentioning even his pame. It is true, it had its complaints to make against Congress and the state of the president is making an attempt to the president is making an attempt to the president is making an attempt to concurrence of the Senate, to be made to the president is making an attempt to commands General Lorenzo-Thomas to take THE Democratic State Convention, which

Chief Justice Chase—An Explana-tion of his Course—The Friends of Chief Justice Chase.

It seems that when the Senate committee to propie rules first met, a week ago yesterday, it was suggested that it would not be improper to consult with the Chief Justice improper to consult with the Chief Justice preparatory to drawing them up. This suggestion was favorably received, and Messrs. Howard and Edmunds were asked to see and talk with Mr. Chase. They called on him and were cordially received. He stated when they mentioned their business, that he did not think it best for him in his official expellet to said the state of th did not think it dest for him in his omeini ea-pacity to assist at that time in preparing the rules. This view was concurred in by the two Schators, and thereupon followed a long in-formal talk on the subject. The fact was very soon developed that the Senators, and partic-ularly Mr. Howard, differed greatly and radi-cally from the Chief Justice as to this winter. Third—That Andly Johnson, did on the twenty, first day of Ferrary, commut, a high crime and misdeness, by appointing Gen.
