For Presidential Elector.—We notice in the proceeding of the Democratic State Convention, at Harrisburg last week, that S. B. Wilson, Esq., of this place, has been selected as the Presidential Elector for the 9th District.

Court.—Our patrons and all others interested, will bear in mind that Court commences in this place on next Monday. From general appearances, a large amount of business will be transacted during the term.

Evangelical Conference.—The Pittsburgh Conference of the Evangelical Church (better known to some, as Albrights) will convene in Rochester, on to-day (Wednesday 11th,) with Bishop Long presiding. This Conference contains about forty-five ministers, and will hold its session over one Sabbath. It is expected that some of the pulpits in this vicinity will be filled by members of the Conference.

Four of the months of this year have five Saturdays each, and four of them five Sundays each. The Saturday months are February, May, August and October, and the Sunday months are March, May, August and November. Nobody need want better months than May and August, with five pay days and five "rest days" in each one.

A New Borough.—Some months ago the citizens of New Galilee, this county, made application to the Court to be incorporated as a borough. At the last term of Court held in this county, their request was granted, hence they intend in the future to "run a machine" of their own. The borough thus created, we believe, is named "New Galilee. The territory composing it was taken from Big Beaver township.

Reports of Committees.—On the 3d inst., Mr. Nicholson from the Committee on Federal Relations in the State Legislature, reported affirmatively the Senate joint resolutions in favor of Impeaching the President of the United States.

On the same day, from the Committee on Vice and Immorality, Mr. Nicholson also reported a bill submitting the question of license to voters in every district in the State at every general election.

Bill Introduced.—On the 3d inst., Mr. Nicholson, of this county, introduced in the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, a bill, authorizing the Auditor General, Attorney General, and State Treasurer, to adjudicate and settle the claims of citizens of Bridgewater, Beaver county, for damages.

Church Dinner and Supper.—The ladies connected with the M. E. Church of Phillipsburg, this county, intend giving a dinner and supper at the Church building in that place to-day and this evening. The proceeds are to be applied to the benefit of the Church.

Notaries Appointed.—It affords us pleasure to notice that Mr. Milo A. Townsend and A. J. Pettit, Esq., have been appointed Notaries Public for this county. The former will open an office at Beaver Falls, the latter at Smith's Ferry. Both of these gentlemen are competent, and will fill their respective positions with credit to themselves and satisfaction to the public.

Depot Improvement.—We are pleased to notice that the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company have put an addition to the Depot at this place. The addition adds about eighteen feet to the length of the former building, and the width is sixteen feet—the same as the old structure. This will furnish a place in which to keep and protect freight, an improvement we should have had long ago.

Ice Passing Down the River.—On Saturday night, Sunday and Monday a very large amount of well broken ice passed down the Ohio river. Some of it came out of the Beaver, the rest from the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers. The Ohio is in a fine stage at the present time, but is not overflowing its banks.

Conferees Appointed.—The county Republican Committee of Greene county, in this Congressional District, met at Waynesburg on the 29th, and after selecting delegates to the State Convention, appointed the following conferees to meet conferees from the other counties of the District for the purpose of selecting delegates to the National Republican Convention at Chicago on the 20th of May: Dr. S. Colyer, J. B. Donley, and G. L. Wyly.

I. O. of O. F.—A Lodge of the I. O. of O. F. was instituted at Beaver Falls, on the evening of Feb. 25th, by D. D. G. M. John Carter, assisted by D. D. G. P. Wm. Hurst, P. Grands, David Woodruff, and Wm. Barnes, of Beaver Lodge, Bridgewater, and P. Grands, Rev. J. J. McIlvar, R. B. Edgar, E. G. Evans, and G. N. Taylor, of Robinson Lodge, now Brighton. The new Lodge commences under the most favorable auspices. The officers are of the right material to carry on the work successfully, and quite a number of the citizens of the place are ready to join the new organization. The name of the new Lodge is Valley Echo Lodge No. 623.

The January number of The National Agriculturist and Pennsylvania Farm Journal will make a fine impression on its readers. It is neat in its typographical execution, able in its editorial papers, and judicious in its selections. It is a sixteen paged monthly, with three columns to the page. The proprietors and editors, Messrs. J. M. and G. D. Hoster, are assisted in its management by a corps of practical contributors. The journal is worthy of extensive circulation among the farmers of Western Penn. sylvania and Eastern Ohio.—Pitts. Christian Advocate.

We cheerfully endorse what the Advocate says of the above named paper. It is indeed a first class agricultural paper, and is worthy of the patronage of every farmer within the limits above referred to.

Musical Entertainment.—On Tuesday evening of last week, the pupils of Dr. McLean's Seminary, gave a public concert in the U. P. Church of this place. The concert was repeated on the following evening. We happened to be present at the first entertainment, and we do not exaggerate when we say that all who listened to the performers were not only well pleased with the concert, but left with a high appreciation of the services of Prof. Winter as their teacher. On the second evening business engagements prevented our attendance, but we are told by those who were present, that that entertainment was even better than the one given on the preceding evening. The Beaver Falls brass band was present both evenings, and discoursed some excellent music, which was also well received by the audience.

In both of the concerts above referred to, the pianos and organ were not only made to perform a prominent part, but the cornet and violin duets were also introduced by Prof. Winter, with pleasing success.

From what we learn in regard to the late assault and battery case, in which Mr. Wm. Hunter, of Ohio Township, was inclined very decidedly to incline the handkerchief of the party making it, that one of the sons, a younger—and not so exemplary—child than Joseph, in him the spirit of avariciousness must have become developed into a disregard of the statute. We understand that he has not been seen or heard of since the affair occurred, and that the bill already is over $300,000—but how much cannot exactly be ascertained. In connection with the foregoing, gentlemen who has just returned from the oil regions we learn that this spirited locality is doing its part in that region.

Mrs J. R. Grant only states the truth, respecting the illustrious son, says the New York Sun, when he says, as he does in this week's Ledger, that notwithstanding he has served so long in the army, he was never known to use a profane word. This can be said of very few of our Generals, for in the hottest excitement of critical military operations men who are not habituat swearers will sometimes be led into profanity. But General Grant was never heard to utter an oath under any circumstances. His character properly adds to Mr. Grant's remark, that the General's repugnance to profanity will not prevent his taking the oath of office.—Pitts. Com.

A Sensation Yesterday.—Yesterday afternoon about one o'clock, two young men engaged in catching drift wood in a skiff in the Allegheny river, near the out-locks of the old canal, just below the Suspension Bridge, discovered a box floating in the water. They fastened the box to their skiff and conveyed it to shore on the Allegheny side, when they broke off the lid to ascertain its contents, and were astonished to find therein the remains of a human body. They immediately proceeded to the undertaking establishment of Mr. Rödney, on Ohio street, who, accompanied by officers Kingen and Brown, of the Allegheny police force, proceeded to the river bank and had the box removed to the Mayor's office.

Upon examination of the remains it was evident that the body had been dissected by some physician or medical student, placed in the box and then thrown into the river. From the appearance of the head and flesh it was apparent that the body was that of an aged colored man, the skin being black and the hair wooly and gray. In the course of dissecting, the limbs had been severed at the joints, and the upper portion of the head sawed off. The remains had been packed tightly in the box, which was of plain wood, twenty-five inches long, thirteen inches wide and sixteen inches deep. A piece of the Pittsburgh Leader of December 15th, 1867, was found in the box, showing that the dissection had taken place since that time.—Pitts. Com, March 9.

Improvement of the Ohio River, &c.—Senator Lowry of the Crawford and Erie District, is laboring hard in the Legislature to have the General Government move forward in the work of improving the Ohio river. His plan also includes the widening of the Erie Canal. As this locality is materially interested in both of these projects, we herewith append Mr. Lowry's joint resolutions, offered in the Senate of Pennsylvania a few days ago:

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States vests in Congress the exclusive right to regulate commerce between the several States of the Union; and, Whereas the Ohio river is a great and important line of internal communication in which many of the States of this Union are interested; and whereas the survey nearly completed by eminent engineers in the employ of the National Government will demonstrate that this great channel of commerce can be put in good and permanent condition for the passage of steamboats at all seasons of the year, when unobstructed by ice, for a sum not exceeding twenty millions of dollars; therefore,

Resolved, That in the opinion of the people of Pennsylvania, the importance of this great channel of commerce will fully justify the expenditures of the sum named.

2d. That our Senators and Representatives in Congress are requested to urge and vote for such appropriation as will secure the permanent improvement of the Ohio river upon the best plan that civil engineers may recommend.

3d. That as a necessary adjunct of the improvement of the channel of the Ohio river, the enlargement of the Erie canal, connecting said river with Lake Erie, to a capacity sufficient for the transportation of steam tugs of at least three hundred tons, is of the first importance, not only to the commercial circles of the country, but also as a military highway for the nation in time of war, and this enlargement is recommended to the favorable consideration of Congress, which is urged to co-operate with Pennsylvania in aiding and promoting this great work.

"Going to Die."—The Erie Reporter says that the last of Dan. Rice's "sacred cows" is about to die. She has been "on the decline" all winter, and her demise is daily looked for. A male companion and herself were brought from Hindostan some years ago by Mr. Huffnagle, of this State, to whom they were presented by the Chiefs of that country, as a token of their friendship. Mr. Huffnagle sold them to Dan. Rice, who has since exhibited them in nearly every portion of the United States. A year or so ago the male died in Michigan, and we presume that in a few days the female will also have given "up the ghost."

A Gentleman who has recently been on a visit to General Scott, at Charleston, says the latter gave the most encouraging reports concerning the freedmen. He alluded to a little colony not far from that city. He (General Scott) loaned from his private purse two thousand dollars to a few blacks, who purchased the land very cheap, and formed this colony. During the past year they were very industrious, and, raising good crops, now have an abundance and to spare, while very many of their white neighbors are in a needy condition.

An American who recently fell in with Breckinridge and was in his society for several days, says his misfortunes have worked a great change in the man. He dresses poorly and is very subdued and almost melancholy in his manner. On being asked why he did not return home, he said he would like to do so very much and should never be molested in Europe but he believed that he would be arrested the moment he ventured foot on his native shore.

Railroad Accident.—A little boy named Johnson, about three years of age, was struck by a moving train of cars, near Quaker Valley station, on the P. Ft. Wayne, and Chicago R. R., on last monday and fatally injured.

High Waters.—The creeks north of us were on the "rampage" last Monday. The Erie and Pittsburgh railroad was completely submerged between New Castle and Sharon, and railroad communication was suspended on that day, but resumed again on Tuesday.

Bills Introduced.—On the 9th inst., Mr. Nicholson of this county introduced a bill in the Legislature, exempting the parsonage of the M. E. Church in Beaver borough from taxation.

Also an act incorporating the borough of Baden, in Economy township, Beaver county. This bill passed finally.

The following letter is a perfect model in its way. We certainly hope it is a unique specimen: "Dear Brother—I've got one of the handsomest farms in the State, and have it nearly paid for. Crops are good, prices never were better. We have had a glorious revival of religion in our church, and both our children (the Lord be praised) are converted. Father got to be an incumbrance, and last week I took him to the poor-house. Your affectionate brother."

Gen. Hancock has asked to be relieved from his command at New Orleans. If the reports which reach us from that city are to be relied on, his supersedure cannot come too soon. It is charged that his recent course has depreciated the city currency to such a degree that a popular panic prevails. The Mayor, apprehensive of trouble, issued a proclamation yesterday, in which the responsibility for whatever may occur is indirectly charged upon Gen. Hancock and the leading Rebel spirits around him.—N. Y. Tribune.

MARRIED.

HOYTT—AMMON—On Tuesday, March 3d, 1868, by S. Gormly, Esq., Mr. Thomas Hoytt to Miss Minerva Ammon, all of Industry township, Beaver Co., Pa.

WATTERSON—EARLY—On the 6th inst., by the Rev. R. Morrow, Mr. James Z. Watterson to Miss Adaline Early, both of Beaver, Pa.

DIED.

HUNTER—On the 3d of March, 1868, at his residence in Ohio Township, Beaver county, Pa., Mr. Thomas Hunter, in the 66th year of his age.

The Hon. John A. Bingham, who has been chosen chairman of the Committee of Managers to try Andrew Johnson, was born at Mercer, Pennsylvania, in 1815, and is therefore fifty-three years old. He passed two years in a printing office, received an academic education, was a student of Franklin College, Ohio, admitted to the bar in 1840, District Attorney for Tuscarawas county, from 1846 to 1849, and has since served in the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses from the Sixteenth Ohio District. He was chairman of a board of managers in the House for the impeachment of Judge Humphreys for high treason on the 22d of May, 1863; was appointed Assistant Judge Advocate General in 1864, and conducted the prosecution in the trial of the assassins of Mr. Lincoln; is now chairman of the House Committee of Claims; he is also a member of the Committee on Reconstruction; and in consequence of the illness of Mr. Stevens, upon himself and Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, has devolved the main business in the proceedings against Andrew Johnson. A finished scholar, an easy, rapid and trenchant speaker, he is among the most effective and pleasant orators in Congress. His knowledge and aptitude for the law are very remarkable. With a fine, expressive countenance, and graceful figure, and medium stature, he revives the best ideal of Parliamentary eloquence, and will attract great attention and wield a large influence before the Senatorial Judges.

The Public Debt—Statement for March 1st—A Decrease of $7,455,751.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The following is the statement of the public debt on the 1st of March:

Debt bearing coin interest	$1,090,120,992 80
Debt bearing currency interest	2,272,508 80
Not presented for payment	10,630,153 64
Debt bearing no interest	414,106,053 51
Total debt	$2,646,907,079 95
Amount in Treasury, Coin	$106,622,774 75
Currency	21,754,052 20
Total	$128,377,457 11

Debt less cash in Treasury $2,519,329,622-80; a decrease of $7,485,751.

The warrants issued by the Treasury Department during February, 1868, to meet the requirements of the Government, in round numbers, is viz: Miscellaneous and Foreign intercourse $3,000,000; interest on public debt, $4,050,000; war, $2,360,000; navy, $2,040,000; interest, pensions, and Indians $4,900,000. The warrants issued for the redemption of the public debt are not included in the above.

The receipts of customs, from February 24th to 29th, inclusive were $3,361,340.

The charge that Republicans make the matter of impeachment a party question is effectually disproved by the course of the party in the New-York Assembly. Mr. Dorn, a Republican, one of the Canal Commissioners, has been charged with malfeasance in office by a Democratic Assemblyman from Kings County. After full deliberation the articles of impeachment have been agreed upon, and when the main question came to a vote on Thursday there was but one negative. The Republicans, by common consent, invite the most searching investigation. At Washington the case is different. As a matter of party discipline the entire Democratic force goes squarely against a trial, and then every man of them cries out that the Republicans are making it a party question. It would be news to the country if we could show any important questions in any legislative body that the Democracy did not debate and adjudge from a purely partisan standpoint.—N. Y. Tribune.

"Copperhead."—It is with regret we notice the introduction of the word "Copperhead" into Webster's Dictionary, a work which should seek to elevate the tone of the language instead of reducing it. The insertion of this meaningless phrase only exhibited the partisan bigotry of the author, and should operate against its general use.—Pittsburgh Post.

In view of the above protest we suggest that the first plank in the Democratic platform to be formed at the approaching National Convention—be made to read as follows:

Resolved that we denounce Webster's Dictionary as unfitted for common use among Democrats, and recommend the adoption in lieu of it in Democratic localities and families, Walker's Unaltered Edition of the year 1778.—Wash. Reporter.

Something must be wrong with the Democratic, greenback-repudiation-PENDLETON-ian machinery, or the State Convention at Harrisburg on Wednesday, after all the howling we have heard, surely would not have ground out such a grist of dilutions as the following:

Resolved, That the national debt should be paid as rapidly as is consistent with the terms of the laws on which the several loans are based.

Could there be anything more tame than this? As the next thing to nothing at all, we may safely assume that it is about the last we shall hear of Mr. PENDLETON's doctrine of an unlimited issue of greenbacks to pay off our obligations.—Pitts. Com.

The Democrats of Philadelphia have placed at the head of their delegation to the National Convention Alderman William McMullen. This is a very worthy selection. Mr. McMullen has been distinguished in public life. He was the referee in the celebrated prize-fight between Collyer and Barney Aaron, at Acquia Creek, and we have a recollection that he promised, on that occasion, to mash the head of anybody who should put his name in the papers. At the risk of having our head mashed, we venture to chronicle his new appointment.

The charter election was held in Oswego, New York, on Wednesday, and resulted in the election of a Republican Mayor, and three out of four alderman, by a majority of 218, a Republican gain of 148 over last spring, and 63 over last fall.

Utica was carried by the Democrats by about 300 majority, a Republican gain of 200.

That's the way the tide turns for next fall.—Har. Tel.

BARNUM has just received a new antelope and two fine camels with a pair of long-haired Shetland ponies, no larger than medium sized Newfoundland dogs, but he has no place to exhibit them in. His employees are to have a benefit next Wednesday at the Academy of Music, New York.

FALLSTON FOUNDRY.

ENGINE & REPAIR SHOP,

In Fallston Beaver County, Pa.

HAVING refitted and enlarged my stock of machinery and tools, and having secured the services of the best of mechanics, I am prepared to warrant all work done to give entire satisfaction. I have on hand different patterns and styles of Engines, Fire Clay Rolls, and am prepared to make or repair all descriptions of machinery, on reasonable terms.

PLOWS AND PLOW CASTINGS.

I have all the best plow patterns that suit the market among which is the "Great Western," which has been THE plow of the county for the last fifteen years. There are five sizes of this plow, all of which I manufacture and keep for sale; also "Patent Lever"—right and left—"Mountain King,"—right and left—"Sod Hill," and nearly all the different kinds in use.

COOKING, FRANKLIN AND HEATING STOVE

Having made several important improvements on the "Climax," by which coal or wood can be supplied without lifting lids, and having two places for pipe, either or both of which can be used at the same time, with a ventilation to the oven, thus having the advantages of a Cooking Stove, Base Burner and Parlor Stove combined. This stove has been in constant use for nearly years, and many of them are now being used for this period of time, and now in good order. There is but a small portion of this stove that ever needs repair and this is easily and cheaply replaced. To make them still more lasting, we are now putting in tile or fire brick lining. Our other patterns are the Enterprise, Keystone and Premium. Parlor stoves, large and small heating Stoves, Franklin Stoves, Jenny Lind's, &c., Grate and Grate Fronts, Fancy Grates, Rollers of various styles, Wagon Boxes, Iron Fronts, Tire Benders, Corn Shellers, Force and Cistern Pumps, Sad Irons, Metal Sinks for kitchen, Sheet Iron and Tinware, always on hand and made to order. In fact, I manufacture and keep for sale, almost everything wanted in the machinery or hardware line.

In addition to our other Stoves, we are now making two new patters, No. 7 and 8, of the Great Republic, which are taking captive, the best cooks and housewives in the country.

Second hand stoves always for sale cheap. Two good new engines, suitable for saw mill or shop purposes now on hand, and will be sold reasonable.
