and it is discovered that their debts for a three months experiment in journalism amounted to over $39,000. A history of the struggles and losses of men who have failed in the news paper business during the last twenty years would be interesting reading. Thus New York Tribuine of last Friday in a double-headed editorial makes this an-nounce it as his option that the only hope for the peace of the country is the success of the pending Impeachment trial. He feels that national security demands the premoval of the President. If the trial should fail, the people can only expect more assumptions of power, child only expect more assumptions of power, and a more determined resistance of law.— When the General of our Armies entertains this conviction there is no room for doubt as to the duty of the Senate.
