Under the significant caption "One Enemy Less," the Macon Messenger has an editorial virtually justifying the assassination of George W. Ashburn.

Appointed Notary Public.—Governor Geary a few days ago appointed quite a number of Notaries Public. Among those we see the name of a gentleman of this county—Capt. Chas. B. Hurst of Rochester.

Senator Dixon's time expires March 4, 1869.—The result of Monday's Connecticut election insures a Republican as his successor. That kind of "Democratic victories" can be endured very comfortably.

The Mount Pleasant (Iowa) Journal says there is a county in Ohio, called Monroe, with 2,712 dogs, besides 1,700 Democratic majority making in all 4,412—"could mean curs.

Mail Contract Awarded.—We are pleased to learn that Thos. McKinley, Esq., of this place, has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail between Beaver and Rochester. His bid was lower than others. Mr. McKinley's term begins on the 1st of July. He intends running a hack between the places named, for the accommodation of travelers, &c.

The Law Card of Frank Wilson, Esq., will be found in another column of the ARGUS. His office is in the room formerly occupied by the late Hon. Reuben Adams. Mr. Wilson is a young gentleman of fine attainments, an excellent moral character, and will give prompt attention to all business entrusted to him.

Slight Accident.—One day last week, while one of the employees of Davidson's saw mill at Sharon, in this county, was superintending the drawing of a log from the creek up to the mill, he was knocked from a slippery position on the slide, and fell on the stones below. He was taken up in an insensible state, but soon recovered, and it is believed he sustained no injury.

Accident.—We learn that a son of Mr. Holland of this place, in attempting to jump over the hay scales, near the leaning end bent, fracturing his right arm at the elbow joint. Through the timely assistance of Drs. Parker and Wallace, the injuries received were dressed, and the boy is doing well.

Replanting.—Our Street Commissioner, we notice, is now at work at replanting shade trees on the pavements commons, in the vacant places caused by the severe winter, which were planted last spring. The trees are straightened, dug up, and live ones replanted up in their places. These vacancies are numerous, especially in places where the trees were weakest, and where they are surrounded by ice in the winter.

New Editors Fight out West.—A couple of Illinois editors against now "going through" each other, one of the men a few weeks ago took a turn at the other in this wise: "You are the fellow who stole my quinine, and broke through the ice. I went in up to my ears, but the hole was not big enough to let you through. While you was waiting for some one to help you out your ears froze, and consequently had to be amputated, and are now used for canes."

Gen. Tom Thumb and Troupe.—The renowned Gen. Tom Thumb and his associates, consisting of Mrs. Thumb, Commodore Nutt and pretty little Lavinia Warren, will be at Rochester, this county, on Monday next. See advertisement in another column. In addition to the exhibition of their diminutive selves, in parts or all together, and in a variety of costumes, dance and amuse their visitors in a variety of occasions numerous to mention. Those who have never seen these Lilliputians, and their performances, an excellent moral character, and will give prompt attention to all business entrusted to him.

Ice Harvest.—The ice harvest is now in full blast. Ice of excellent quality is being cut in large quantities from the Ohio river, and is being stored away in houses for use during the summer season. The ice is from 12 to 15 inches thick.

Accident.—We learn that a son of Mr. Holland of this place, in attempting to jump over the hay scales, near the leaning end bent, fracturing his right arm at the elbow joint. Through the timely assistance of Drs. Parker and Wallace, the injuries received were dressed, and the boy is doing well.

They will be at Rochester on the 23rd. An event, we think, that many may never ocenr.

"All Fool's Day." A correspondent writes us to remind us that the first of April is called all fool's day, and wholly caps the custom of making a fool of everybody that day. If our correspondent will take a look at recently read the eleventh chapter of Genesis, he will more than likely become convinced, and not on the subject.

The son of Mr. E. M. Stanton recently informed him as to his willingness to become Mr. Johnson's successor in the Senate of the United States. He responded peremptorily: "What I want now is rest, quiet, a chance to live with my family and family in peace. I appreciate the honor you express, but there is no office I will take. Doubtless, his incessant labors in the cabinet made him long for repose; and yet we think but few persons of public duty would, under the circumstances, refuse to accept the place, in case it was tendered to him.—Pitts. Gaz.

The Washington Herald says: "We are reliably informed that some of the coal operators at Steubenville, who have furnished the Ohio river in their boats, and are now getting out coal on Saturdays and selling it on the Ohio side without and without price. If so, they are clearly against law, and the matter should receive the attention of the authorities.

Men Without a Country.—A letter received from an American citizen at Beyrout, Syria, dated March 9, says John C. Breckinridge was there on his way to Egypt, making inquiries with regard to travelling in Syria. He denied all claims to the privileges of citizens of the United States, and appeared quite elated while conversing upon the affairs of Europe. The same letter states that Jacob Thompson and Clement Clay, were wandering about Europe.

New Post Routes in this County.—In the list of contemplating new post routes in the United States, we notice these, which are of interest to our readers:

From Darlington to Elder's Mills.
From Freedom to Knob.
From Bolen, via Wall Rock, and Blair, to Perryville.

The Post Office Department will let these routes to contract as soon as it has time to advertise them, if the people desire it. The wish of the inhabitants in the several localities, in regard to putting on the routes named, should be forwarded at once to the Department.

The Iowa Press says there is a woman in Washington county, in that State, a Mrs. Grant, who has crossed the Plains twice (once since 1860), several times with her husband (now dead), teaming out and driving stock back. She is, perhaps forty years old, a woman of quiet yet resolute bearing, and modest withal, and she is the most self-hopeful person of her sex we have ever seen. She was last week negotiating with Mr. E. Crane, for the sale of her farm of 345 acres in Franklin township, and proposed to leave for Southeastern Kansas on Monday. She rides her pony like a captain, sitting woman-fashion on a man's saddle. We don't suppose Mrs. Grant was ever heard to say much about "woman's rights," but in point of executive ability and self-reliance she shows herself the equal of any man, and has earned an equal claim to all his privileges.

An Organ "Galloping" into Favor.—A most remarkable piece of musical mechanism, in the shape of an organ, representing the vox humana, (human voice,) is creeping, or rather galloping, into public favor. It is known as the "Burdett Organ," whose tones, do not touch nicety, or abstractly considered as such, but whose utterances are made to excite almost any emotion of the human heart, whether of joy or of sorrow, at the will of the performer, and cause the listener to wonder how it lives without eating and drinking like human beings. Those enterprising gentlemen, H. Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburgh, have it for sale, and would be pleased to exhibit to those who desire to witness its powers, the wonderful capacity it possesses, to inspire our minds, stir our hearts, and mingle its tender and touching sympathies with those of the human breast. It is said that one gentleman, on visiting this amazing specimen of human invention, for the second time, so far forgot himself that he actually addressed it—"Good morning, Madame!"—Eastern exchange paper. [apr 1:6t.

The New York Times thus sums up the characteristics of D'Arcy McGee, the last victim of assassination: "Mr. McGee, though an able man, is a certain sense gifted with genius, was neither a statesman nor a man for whom a commanding influence can be truthfully claimed. He was an excellent public speaker, a litterateur of varied acquirements, but an ordinary writer, and a very poor manager, as the fate of his newspaper enterprises attests. Perhaps the field in which he rendered the greatest service and won the widest name was that of the lecturer, in which capacity he was favorably known wherever the Irish element enters largely in the composition of our communities. His recent course separated him from his former friends, and at the time of his death, we suspect there were few Irishmen less trusted than he, or less respected by our Celtic citizens.

The only foundation for the recent report that Garibaldi was a secret agent of the American Government, and that his name had appeared in an official list of such agents, published under the authority of Mr. Seward, is said to be the following circumstance: During the civil war Mr. Lincoln offered Garibaldi an important command in the Federal army. The General wrote from Caprera, thanking the President but declining the offer. He added, however, that the cause of America was the cause of humanity, and that though he could not take part in the war, he would send some experienced officers to America who had served under his orders. He did so. The expenses of the voyage amounted to 6,000 francs; this sum was reimbursed, and Mr. Seward charged it to the account of "secret service money."

A Newspaper Change.—A change in the proprietorship of the Lawrence Journal occurred last week. J. W. Blanchard, Esq., withdraws, and D. Sankey, Esq. & Co. continue its publication. Both the retiring editor and Mr. Sankey, have our warmest wishes for success in the future. The Journal will "continue steadily to advocate the principles of the Republican party, and the enactment of general, equal and just laws, that will foster and encourage the acquisition of useful knowledge; the practice of morality and habits of industry among all classes of the people, while it will oppose all monopolies and combinations of individuals for selfish purposes, and insist upon a strict accountability on the part of all public officers, and the practice of the most rigid economy in the administration of all governmental affairs."

Leg Broken.—Last Wednesday a lady by the name of Hurst, residing in Brighton township, this county, while ascending a ladder in the barn, lost her hold, and was precipitated a distance of eight or ten feet to the floor. In the fall her foot caught, and her leg was broken about the ankle. She laid in the position caused by the fall, suffering great pain, and unable to move, for a couple of hours, before her painful position was discovered; but when her condition was ascertained, the fractured limb was dressed, and we believe she is getting along very well at present.

Special Order No. 1.—The Officers and Comrades of Post No. 99, G. A. R. are commanded to meet at their Headquarters in Beaver, on next Wednesday evening, (April 22d) at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as there is business of importance to be transacted.

By order of
Attest: JAMES DARRAGH, P. C.
J. MORTON HALL, P. A. pro tem.

Some poetaster has been cruel enough to portray the terrible things the Democracy were to do if Johnson were impeached, in this wise:

"We are coming Brother Johnson,
Yes, we'll come a million strong,
Bringing Wilkinson Sheafful with us,
Our Jim and Pearl-John;
Yes, we're coming Brother Andy,
Yes, a million, Oh! just think,
But not to fight much, Andy,
But to take a social drink."

April Sleighing.—On last Friday morning, we had a snow in this locality some two or three inches in depth. The weather, however, was not severely cold. Several sleighs were out in the morning, and the jingling of the bells reminded us of mid-winter again. We do not remember of ever seeing a snow like this on the 10th of April before.

On Sunday morning the snow began to fall again and came down heavy the greater part of the day, and the wind blew very cold. Monday the sun came out quite warm, and in the evening all indications of snow had disappeared.

G. A. R.—The Philadelphia Press publishes a complete list of the Posts and their commanders of the Grand Army of the Republic in Pennsylvania.—From this list it appears that there are now in this State 197 Posts. The organization has extended itself to almost every county in Pennsylvania.

The Democracy of Bridgewater, Beaver county, gave the Rads a Waterloo defeat on Monday of last week, by electing their whole ticket by a handsome majority. One year ago the Rads carried the town; in the fall, however, the Democracy carried it by eighteen majority. The Rads thereupon secured the passage of a bill through the present Legislature—against numerously signed remonstrances—attaching the village of Sharon (which was almost entirely Radical) to Bridgewater. Thereby they expected to carry the town beyond a peradventure, but failed to elect a single officer. The four Radical candidates for school directors were beaten worst on account of the fact that for the past year negroes have been admitted to the white schools through the action of the retiring Radical board. Evidently the rank and file of the Radical party felt that it was about time to show their manhood, and therefore, whilst rebuking the miscegenation tendencies of their leaders, most of them voted the whole Democratic ticket.—Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

A stranger on reading the above would be led to believe that the cops made heavy gains in Bridgewater at the recent election, and that the "rads" had met with corresponding losses. This is not true. The cops did not poll as many votes in Bridgewater this spring as they did last fall; the Republicans polled more. But the question is, with Sharon annexed, why did not the Republicans elect their whole ticket? Because for a day or two before the election several leading cops from Bridgewater were up here to get somebody's legal opinion to the effect that the voters of Sharon could not lawfully participate in the election on the 30th of March, on the ground of not having resided within the borough of Bridgewater for six months past. Whether they got this legal opinion or not we cannot say; but certain it is, they went back to Bridgewater and alleged they had it. They sent word to Sharon that they had it. Believing then that they could not vote a large number of the Sharon Republicans did not attend the election at all. In consequence of this non-attendance the Democrats, as usual, succeeded with their ticket. Of course the Republicans of Sharon were clearly entitled to vote, and these assertions of the cops to the contrary were made only to deter them from exercising their legal rights on that day. The Sharon Republicans believed they had as clear a right to vote at that election as the Bridgewater cops had, but being new-comers in the borough they chose to let the election go by default, rather than have any trouble about it. This is why the Republican ticket of Bridgewater was not elected on the 30th of March, as the Patriot and Union can ascertain by investigating the facts. If that paper will hold its peace until the fall elections, we venture to say its news from Bridgewater will be very different from what it now prints. Mark that.

CALIFORNIA CORRESPONDENCE.

OROVILLE, CAL., March 14, 1868.

Editor ARGUS:—I perceive from my diary that last night, and reflecting how often in years long past, I had been pleased and profited in perusing your valuable paper, I came to the conclusion I would extend my hand and renew my former acquaintance, and jot down a few items that might perhaps be read with interest by your readers, coming as it does from the "Gem of the foot hills" in this Eldorado of the pacific Slope. The point from where I write, is the beautiful town of Oroville in Lat. 39 deg. 31 min. 35 sec. N. Long. 121 deg. 26 min. 41 sec. W. It is the county seat of Butte county, and lying on the south bank of Feather river, in the great valley of the Sacramento, and contains a population of some twelve hundred souls, with beautiful, wide, level streets, well shaded and surrounded by Mining & Agricultural lands. Indeed the ground on which it stands will pay from two to five dollars "to the hand" now, but that is not thought sufficient pay for a miner to pitch his tent. And the same land will produce almost any kind of cereals. We have here large and commodious county buildings, two churches, two Odd Fellows, and two Masonic Lodges, with large memberships. We have Mills, Foundry and Machine Shops, large Wholesale and retail Dry Goods and Grocery Stores; there is also a Rail Road running from here every day, connecting with the tide water. This place is seventy-five miles from the State Capital (Sacramento City), and two hundred and five miles from the city of San Francisco. We have perhaps, as large and well conducted graded Grammar school as is in any place of its size in the U. S. The surrounding country is well adapted to raising grapes. Large vineyards all through the foots hills, adjacent to town. Many thousands of gallons of wine was made last year, selling from one dollar to one dollar and a half per gallon. Politics—Radical, strong for Congress, and very bitter on "I am your Moses." The State is Radical, but last fall the Union men put up bad men, and the party split, hence the State was turned over to the "Snakes," but in next November this State will roll up a large majority for General Grant.

The Markets—Wheat, $2 70 ℔ bush; flour, from $7-50 to $8 25 ℔ cwt.; barley, from $2 12½ to $2 25 ℔ cwt.; oats $2 30 ℔ cwt.; potatoes, from 80c to $1 50 ℔ bush.; hay, from $20 to $25 ℔ ton; onions, 6 @ 7 cts. ℔ lb.; butter from 40 to 45 cts. ℔ lb.; eggs 50 cts. ℔ doz.—Meats; beef 15 to 20 cts. ℔ lb.; hams 25 cts. ℔ lb.; bacon 18 cts. ℔ lb.; lard, 17 cts. ℔ lb.; turkey, 25 cents ℔ lb.; hens from $7 50 to $8 50 ℔ dozen.

The weather here this winter has been very severe it has rained almost continually since Christmas.—A clear day is the exception, in the Mountains the snow and storm has been terrible, snow slides are of common occurrence within the last three weeks. In one place, in Eureka Canon, seven persons were killed. The Central Pacific R. R—At Cisco on the Summit, last week, the snow on the track was thirty feet deep. I send you for your Cabinet some gold dust, taken from Jordan Creek, Idaho territory; it is valued at $12 per oz. In my next, I will send you some samples from this place.

Beaver county is represented here by the family of Peter Whitebread, formerly of Fallston. I am sorry to have to record the death of the old gentleman, who died suddenly on the 5th of February, also our friend Joseph N. Vera, formerly of Bridgewater. He is under Sheriff of this county, and your correspondent.—The changes that have taken place since I was last in Beaver must be great, many of my old chums have fallen in the great struggle for liberty, and by the unerring hand of death. More anon.

Oroville, California, March 14, 1868.

Attempted Escape.—On Sunday evening, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, as Mr. Thompson, Deputy Sheriff, was making his rounds preparatory to closing up the jail for the night, and securing the fastenings, he was assaulted by four of the prisoners, named respectively, Wm. Smith, Benj. Arthurs, Elmer Powelson and Sut Butler, (the latter colored.) It appears that they had a pre-arranged plan laid to make an attempt to escape, as their operations were apparently conducted with some system. While Smith attacked Mr. Thompson in front, Butler came up behind and clenched him by the throat, the other two, Arthurs and Powelson engaging him as circumstances would permit, but Mr. Thompson, being an active man, succeeded after herculean efforts in throwing off his assailants, and defeating their murderous purposes. The presence of mind exhibited by the Deputy, in throwing the keys, during the struggle, into one of the cells and out of the reach of the culprits, thereby frustrating their scheme for getting away, is certainly commendable.—Washington Reporter.

The Nashville Press says that the secret and murderous co-operhead association known as the "Ku-Klux-klan," was conceived and organized in New York by Tennessee rebels. It was first put into practical working in Pulaski, Tenn., and was in full force there some months since at the time of the riot. After that it spread rapidly in all the States. The main object of the organization seems to be to rid the whole South of all Union men by murder. One of the latest and most distinguished victims was the Hon. G. W. Ashburn of Georgia, who was foully murdered in his own house on the night of the 30th ult. Gen. Meade has issued strict orders in his military district for the suppression of the organization. It is rumored that we are to have a lodge in Lancaster under the supervision of the young Vallandigham Democracy.

A Delectable Town.—A correspondent writing from Hayes City, Kansas, the present terminus of the Kansas branch of the Pacific Railroad, gives the following catalogue of the attractions of that city:

"Hayes City contains about 800 people, nearly one-half of whom subsist by selling whisky to the other half; the Sabbath is known only as a day of recreation, shops of every kind being open, money staked on the tables, and gambling going on as usual. The gospel has never been preached in the place. The streets are patroled night and day by United States soldiers; shooting at each other is the standard amusement of the lively population, four persons having been shot in a single week, recently; might is right, and the revolver is the court of first and last appeal. It has not rained in Hayes City for six months."

At the recent election in Kansas, Hayes City went Democratic by nearly four to one. This statement, however, will startle no one. Such a result was to be expected.

Pennsylvania Reserve Association.—Col. John H. Taggart, corresponding secretary, sends us the following for publication:

The second annual meeting of the Association will be held at Pittsburgh, May 30th, on which occasion a full attendance of all the surviving members of the "Old Corps" who can make it convenient to attend is earnestly desired. All who intend to participate will please notify Major John C. Harvey, recording secretary of the association, at the office of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville railroad company, Pittsburgh, Pa., before May 15th.

The Committee of Arrangements appointed at the last celebration will select the place of meeting in Pittsburgh. A handsome badge, to be worn by the members, will be presented for adoption.

Let every man who can come be there, to spend a few hours in social intercourse with his old comrades in arms. An address will be delivered on the late Major General George A. McCall.

Newspapers throughout Pennsylvania, without distinction of party, will confer a favor by copying this notice.—State Guard.

The McConnellsville (O.) Herald announces the death of John Gray, supposed to be the last surviving soldier of the Revolution. It occurred at the residence of his daughter, near Hiramsburg, Noble county, Ohio, on the 20th ult. Mr. Gray had just completed his 104th year, having been born early in 1764. He has not been on the pension list until within a year or two, not possessing the prescribed proofs of his military service. It having come to the knowledge of the Congressman of his district that Mr. Gray was in necessitous circumstances, and that there was no doubt of his having served in the closing years of the Revolution, an annuity of $500 per annum was settled upon him.

Deeply pious herself, death had no terrors for her, and when the summons came she passed to that bourne from whence no traveller ever returns, without a pain and without a struggle. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.
