Democrats and the Presidener.

Gen, Halpine (Miles O'Reilly) in his paper, the New York Citizen, reads the Democratic party a vigorous lecture on what they should do about the Presidency. He tells them plainly that if they permit the outrageous leadership of which Brick Pomeroy's paper is the organ, to go much farther, decent men will leave the party. Already, he says, the party HARDWARE STORE, is in an "awkward position," composed as it is of conflicting and antagonistic interests, consistency with the stupidities of the last sivyears," says the Citizen, "insure utter ruin."
The article in this respect is so outspoken that we quote the following for the benefit of our Democratic friend:

"The organization happens to be composed ot conflicting and antagonistic elements; a large portion of it consists of actual, positive of the South, and Minkles of its rest, more, sub-
