The great end life is happiness; and as holiness is the basiof happiness, we must of necessity become by if we would be truly sential part of a liberal education.

We are pleased to lears that the Legislature that has just adjourned made an appropriation of $500, (0) to common schools. This is one hundred and forty-five thousand dollars more than last year, and the largest appropriation ever made, except that made in State Appropriations. propriation ever made, except that made in 1837, which was the same amount. This sum
