WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25, 1898.

Your columns of last week were filled with a letter from the Hon. Charles F. Smith, of the House of Representatives.

Of course you are already aware of the action of the Senate on the 11th article which is considered by almost all at a lost vote.

Chicago is now the theatre of action. Hoopla dispatches are arriving here announcing the progress of the convention.

Let me quote from the Chronicle: "The conduct of Chief Justice Chase since he commenced plotting for the Presidency has been such as to disgust every man who has the slightest respect for the dignity of the judicial office."

Chief Justice Chase since he commenced plotting for the Presidency has been such as to disgust every man who has the slightest respect for the dignity of the judicial office.
