[From the New York World.]. The War Department is, for the present, in the discrete and able hands of Gen. Grant. As Congress is to meet in November, we wish that Gen. Grant might superintend the Department during the short intervening period, and until the Senate shall have decided on the sufficieney of the Presidents' reason for removing Stanton.

[From the New York World.]

General Grant's temporary acceptance of the War Department causes a stir in the Re-publican party, which confuses the calcula-tions of these Republicans who, five weeks ago, counted securely on his nomination as ago, counted securely on his nomination as their candidate for the Presidency. Those Republican newspapers, therefore, which, like the Times, are trying to identify General Grant with the Republican party, are opposing a strong presumption by the thinnest and foe-blest of shudowy inferences. they are beaten, and will all tumble over to the Republican side. If they should carry those three States in the preliminary contest, the should descend into the areas of party publican candidate for the Presidency, and not contests. If he cannot be elected President that it will have any faith in its own denuncicontests. If he cannot be elected President that it will have any faith in its own denunci-without such a descent, he can do no good in the Presidency. Our torn, lacerated, exas-perated country needs soothing, needs pacifi-cation, needs oll on the troubled waters, which, still toes and dath after the recent tempest would no mark have formed for the man. For the purpose of show-ing its estimate of his great qualities before he became a political opponent, we herewith ap-pend an editorial which appeared in that pa-
