Sudden Death .-- On last Friday morning

young lady, aged fitteen or sixteen years, named Ada Atwell, of New Brighton, died very suddenly at the house of her Grandfather, Mr. Riley. In her usual last week that a gentleman of this county, named health, after breakfast, she went up stairs to attend to Wood, while passing from Georgetown to Hookstown some chamber duties, and not returning at the expec ted time, her aunt went to look for her. She found her suffering with a violent pain in the head. She con tinued to grow worse and worse until in the afternoor when death ended her sufferings. She was a pupilin the Public School of that place, and was highly esteemed by her friends and acquaintances. The exercises of the Kalamathean Society, held in their room Friday evening, were very highly appreciated by all present. They consisted of Essays, Music; Recitations and Select Reading, and their preparation must have been beneficial to the young ladles as their performance was pleasing to their anditors. We learn Dishop Kingsley is to be present during the commoncement of this institution, and that our citi zens will have an opportunity of hearing an addres from him at some time during the exercises of th week.
