Grant and Colfax will swoop the field.

A-NEW indictment has been found against John H. Surratt. The first count charges that he, Booth, Paine, Harold, O'Laughlin Arnold, Atzerott, and Mrs. Surmit conspired county. About 400 Irishmen were employed to purples. Alimban, Lincoln. The second on the road, and boarded in shantles along the to murder Abraham Lincoln. Senators were to the possession, custody, and control of to be elected in the Center District, but not certain persons, whose names are unknown in the Clearfield. The following testimony, to the Grand Jury. .

His trial will probably not take place for ome weeks to come, and he is now released from confinement on bail for his appearance o answer these charges when called upon.

HON. WM. M. EVARTS, a distinguished New York lawyer and one of President Jahnson's attornies in the impeachment trial, has been

Gen. Gen. Tis supported by every illustrious soldier in the Union—Sherman, Meade, Sheridan, Slektes, Geo. II. Thomas, Hooker, Pleasanton, McDowel. Canby, Emory, Scholield, Mower, Ord. Halbeck, Kilpatrick, Logan, Rawlins, and a host of volunteer Generals.

One of the delegates at large from Tennesseo to the copperhead convention in New York on the 4th of July, is the robel General Forest of Fort Pillow notoriety. When men of his stripo are put forward as leading spirits in the first National Convention of the Democrates should pause be fore going any further with that organization. If it was tainted with for receiving the news of the nomination of the nomination of the nomination of the service early in the war, or had been discussed by Mr. Philbin.

We do not know who will be nominated: charged for the public good, or had never been in the service early in the war, or had been discussed not care, but whoever the unhappy wretch may be, he will never wear Presidential laurels.

Nother treason, repudiation, nor assasination and etermination to cleet the Republican detormination to cleet the Republican campaigners of the East and West," &c. We would be glad to know more of these Consertant lates for President.

The Democratic party at the present time is in a peculiar condition. It looks forward to the 4th of July convention with mingled been and fear—hope that something lucky commended with whom the supporters of Grant.

We

hope and fear-hope that something lucky compared with whom the supporters of Grant, will turn up, and fear that the elements of like Sherman, Thomas, Sheridan, Schoffeld, discord known to exist in its ranks will cause Howard, Meade, Camby, Hooker, Burnside, their Convention to break up in a grand row. Logan, Palmer, Cox, Geary, Terry, Ord, It will be the hardest thing unaginable for Rawlins, Wilson, Fairchild, Sickles, and so them to unite either upon principles or can-many others, are carpet knights, prosperous them to unite either upon principles or can many others, are carpet knights, prosperous ilvas working near Mr. Collin's store, came the day in the clubs, so that he whole government debt regulated, and the beginning of the Democratic party would summon its there is Mr. Belmont, who wants it paid. There is, Hancack, who helped to hang Mrs. Surratt, and the Catholic Church hang Mrs. Surratt, and the Catholic Church which declares that execution a brutal murder of an innocent woman. Hancack won all the distinction he has by tighting against the rebels, and to him comes Mr. Vallandigham, the class of the conflict and the means against the nomination of a Lincoln hireling. A dozen factions are in battle arrry. Each trying to cut the throat of the other, and inducing them to pull together as a whole, we shall be greatly surprised, but in no sense docuted but that cause of Republicanism, Union and Empanei:

A milroad sixteen miles long was being built during the Summer and Fall of 1867, in Clearfield and Center counties. From torty to sixty rods only of the road was in Center line, except during the time they were taken copied from the official record of the Legislature, shows how the fraud was perpetrated, and who did it:

Note hawyer and one of President Jaluson's attornies in the imprachment trial, has been nominated for United States Attorney General. It is quite likely that the Senate will confirm the appointment. Mr. Evarts has here tolore been a Republican in politics, and only one year ago he was among those who handled A. J. in the roughest possible manner. What effect a cabinet appointment will have upon his political views remains to be seen.

The Copperhead proposition to collect the rebel and sympathizing prisoners of Fort Lalayette, Fort MeHenry, and Fort Delaware, and make them a feature at the Democratic National Convention on the 4th of July might be happily suplemented by the gathering at the same place of the Union men, including Union soldiers and Southern patriots who were thrown into dens and jails by the rebels and compelled to suffer inconceivable horrors, simply because they had fought for and believed in the cause of liberty.
