The colored (Miss) Inter says: Whoever heard from the colored voters are standing up like men for their Democratic friends.

The Democratic party at the present time is doing its utmost to persuade the laboring people of this country that it, and it alone, is in sympathy with them, and intent on promoting their interests.

A good many years ago when James Buchanan was a representative from this State, in Congress he made a speech in which he took the ground that ten cents per day was all an American laborer should have for his services.

The Democracy have shown their love for the laboring classes in all another way. That party held almost undisturbed possession of this Government for nearly half a century preceding the rebellion.

President Johnson issued his much talked of amnesty proclamation on last Saturday (July 4th). He extends a pardon to all the rebels of the country excepting only those who have indictments pending against them.

It is generally supposed that he issued this proclamation, at the time he did, to influence the New York Convention so that he might become its nominee for President.

Mr. PENDLETON said in Congress, in 1862: "You send these notes out in the world stamped with irredeemability. You put on them the mark of Cain, and like Cain, they will go forth to be vagabonds and fugitives on the earth."

An ex-Colonel of the rebel army arrived at New York on last Wednesday evening in the character of a delegate to the National Democratic Convention which convened there on the 4th.

The "Pendleton escort," which went from Cincinnati to the New York Convention was made up of genuine democrats. If any one is so verdant as to believe that out of the three hundred men composing it a majority of them were tetrators, he would perhaps arrive at a different conclusion after reading the following from the Cincinnati Commercial published the same day the escort left that place:

"The Pendleton escort is to leave by special train of the Little Miami Railroad, this afternoon at four o'clock, all the arrangements for departure having been completed last evening. It will probably arrive in New York at four o'clock of Thursday afternoon.

There are quite a number of fathers in this county who lost their sons in battle while in the Union Army. Wade Hampton's cavalry were here, and everywhere during the war.

There are quite a number of fathers in this county who lost their sons in battle while in the Union Army. Wade Hampton's cavalry were here, and everywhere during the war.

Quite a number of leading Democrats throughout the Northern States were free talkers and free actors during the war. That is, they were not only inclined to do a vital injury to the laboring classes of this country by bringing their wages down to the standard of pauper labor in the old countries.

The Democracy have shown their love for the laboring classes in all another way. That party held almost undisturbed possession of this Government for nearly half a century preceding the rebellion.

The Republican Congressional Conferences for this district (the 24th) met at Pittsburgh for the Monongahela House yesterday (July 7) if a result has been reached yet we do not know what it is.

Each of the four counties composing the district presents a candidate. They are as follows: Beaver, M. Weyand; Lawrence, J. W. Wallace; Green, J. B. Donley; Washington, G. W. Lawrence.

Mr. PENDLETON said in Congress, in 1862: "You send these notes out in the world stamped with irredeemability. You put on them the mark of Cain, and like Cain, they will go forth to be vagabonds and fugitives on the earth."

The Democratic Convention now in session at New York has not yet (Tuesday morning) made a nomination for President or Vice President, nor has it adopted a platform for the party.

We are inclined to the belief that Seymour has made up his mind that Grant will be elected President, and therefore he does not desire to be the candidate against him himself.

When he runs he runs to win. Under these circumstances Seymour and Belmont will consent to Pendleton's being the nominee, but they will take good care to have him put upon a platform directly opposed to the one upon which Pendleton is standing upon at the present time.

ANDY JOHNSON has written a letter in reply to several New York politicians who asked him to allow his name to be used in the Democratic convention as a candidate for President.

BEAVER IN MIND the fact that a huge negro, duly elected and accredited, from Tennessee, appeared at the New York Democratic Convention on last Saturday as a delegate, and was admitted to a seat in that body, the question naturally suggests itself whether we have a "white man's party" in this country at the present time or not.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, speaking of the canvass in this State says: Every Republican organ is now claiming that the origin of his last loss to Grant was due to the fact that he was elected by a few votes, but through the means of Naturalization papers forged for the purpose.

WEDDING the following items from the N. Y. Tribune of last Saturday: THE HOUSE OF AN INDIAN DELEGATE. A few days since Mr. John M. Martin, a delegate from Indiana to the National Democratic Convention, put up at Seymour's Hotel in Cincinnati.

It is not generally known that the renowned Daniel Rice, once a candidate for Congress in the XIX District of Pennsylvania, is now recognized candidate for the Presidency on the straight out-and-out Democratic ticket.
