

The Beaver Argus

FOR PRESIDENT, Ulysses S. Grant. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Schuyler Colfax.

Republican State Ticket. AUDITOR GENERAL, JOHN F. HARTMAN. SURVEYOR GENERAL, GEN. JACOB M. CAMPBELL.

A TEXAS colored man says of the "carpet baggers." "We like them very well. It was the carpet baggers who freed us; they carried their carpet bags on their backs and gus on their shoulders."

THE New York World is Seymour's organ. It says the Democratic platform does not contemplate the issue of any more greenbacks, but means that those already issued shall be raised to a level with specie.

THE Copperhead newspapers think it a grand "card" to complain about the taxes, and charge the necessity for laying them upon the radicals. Do they imagine the people are idiots—or that they have forgotten the great and notorious fact that our debt was forced upon the country by the combined efforts of the Rebels and Copperheads?

THE Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes: "A staff officer of Gen. Langstroth, now in Washington, tells me that Gen. Grant will not be elected."

FRANK P. BLAIR of Missouri recently wrote a letter in favor of resisting the reconstructions acts of Congress by force of arms. This letter procured him the Democratic nomination for Vice President on last Thursday in New York.

A NEW "Conservative Soldiers and Sailors" claiming to have served in the Union army during the war, held a convention in New York at the same time the Democratic convention was in session at that place.

THE Democratic National Convention which assembled at New York on the 4th of July completed its labors and adjourned on Thursday the 9th. It was composed of all shades and conditions of Democrats.

THE so-called Democratic National Convention, met in New York on the 4th inst. This day was the anniversary of the surrender of Vicksburg and the battle of Gettysburg, two events which turned the tide of the great rebellion, in favor of the Union forces.
