H. T. TAYLOR.

Editor—Sir.—The Medicine District General and Colored Club, for the promotion of education at Miller's Schoolhouse, 401 East 10th street, elected as follows: President, Jas. A. Miller; Vice Presidents, Jas. Nelson and Jas. Reed; Recording Secretary, Capt. Wm. Greenstreet; Corresponding Secretaries, H. W. Nelson and Wm. Miller; Treasurer, Robert Harrah; Committee on Speakers, H. W. Nelson and Wm. Miller; Committees on Vigilance, Finance, &c., were appointed. The club was then addressed by Gen'l Thos. Nichols and Jas. Reed. The officers of the 11th of Doush's schoolroom, Capt. Jas. H. Reed, Dr. J. H. Rutherford, Capt. Jas. H. Reed, Special Officer—Jas. H. Reed, Special Officer—Jas. A. Fodino.

Meeting of County Committee.—The Republican County Committee will meet at the Court House on Saturday, Oct. 13, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Our Friends.—Be assured of our love. See you on the 23rd of October. After that day it will be too late. Bear this in mind.

Persons desiring to attend school should apply for the catalogues of the State Normal Schools. Address J. A. Cooper, Education, Oct. 13, 1863.

A number of leading Democrats of New York city are about leaving in advance, to their party friends throughout the State, to follow the example of General Dix, and declare for Grant.

Dropped.—We learn that Capt. Alexander Marx, of the teacher's class, was drowned on Monday last, in the Ohio river, about 40 miles downstream. Capt. Marx resided at Eaton, the country he had no family.

A Household word.—It has been closely reliable, to the editor, that Mr. S. S. Allen's "Independent" has been destroyed, or buried, in one boat, by men and children prefer it. Every Druggist sells it.

Mr. Clarke, Editor of the "Daily Republic," and his wife a long-time Democrat, made a speech in New York city last Friday night in favor of Grant and Dix. Grant's recruits are coming from all points, and comprises all classes and conditions of men.

Admitted to the Bar.—We neglected last week to note that Col. A. W. Taylor of this place had been admitted to the practice of the law in the court of this County. We have not learned whether several hanging a sling belt in this place or not.

Meeting of Synod.—On last Friday the Second of October met, in Bridgewater, (in Rev. Shedd's school) in this county, still continued in session till Monday evening. The meeting was largely attended. On last Sabbath, the various pulpits of this vicinity were occupied by the preachers in attendance. C. Monk.

Still They Come.—W. H. English, formerly a member of Congress from the 11th District of Indiana, is here for Grant and Dix.

Prof. L. of Reading, Pa., and 124 of his friends and associates, are now active Democrats. They come out for Grant Colfax, Union and Peace.

The Trial is tolling on.

The Elizabeth Gazette says that during a heavy thunder storm which passed over the oil region of West Virginia, the lightning struck a derrick, passed through a rafter down into the well, and converted it into a dry well into a good producing well. We have several parties in the vicinity of Island Hill, who are said to have a well struck by lightning if such results would follow.

The Republicans of Freedom, St. Clair and Union will hold a meeting on the common in Freedom on Friday evening, Oct. 24, 1863. Everybody is invited. It is expected that an excursion train will run from New Brighton to Freedom, and return after the meeting. We have positive assurance that Hon. Thomas Marshall, Genl. J. B. Swett and Hon. Jas. A. Ulman will be there. Come everybody.

Letter East.—The following letters have been received, and have remained in the Beaver Post office one month unopened:

Henry Gray, William Gwin, James Johnson, Esq., care of Jas. Hay, Republican Neville, G. B. Price, Christ House, Mrs. Nancy E. Moore, Rev. A. D. Martin, Miss McFerry, Capt. Thos. Mews, Mary A. McGarick, P. M.

Republican Meeting.—The Republicans of Freedom, St. Clair and Union held a large and enthusiastic meeting on Saturday night, Sept. 19th, 1863. The meeting was called to order by Henry Goering, Esq., after some arrangements, the following officers were elected: President, John Jones; Vice President, James Hendon; Secretary and Treasurer, Jas. W. Prudley. The Republicans of New St. Clair are thoroughly organized, and a number of friends of the Democracy, may be looked for on the second Tuesday of October.

G. W. PROUDLEY, Secy.

A Friendly Suggestion.—We offer to the supporters of Seymour and Blair a bit of friendly advice, for which we shall make no charge, and which, if received, can help to make our cause more successful. This is now, I think, the best time to do so, and the people of this town, known to us, will be glad to receive it. Now, it is time to make a strong and decided statement that a Webster defeat awaits those two eminent gentlemen, why not, at once, withdraw them from the field, save the further labor and expense of an excited canvas, and so let the people of the United States, and the world over, know how much pleasure we derive, in seeing, and in supporting, the most powerful instruments known to science.

When the Boys in Blue came out on the 2d of October, in honor of their old comander, the scene will be inspiring and grand beyond description. The indications so far foretell an immense attendance. From all parts of the country come in daily fresh rolls and letters of anxious inquiry. The regiments will, no doubt, be present in force, and the whole town will already the pride of these articles have advanced. A single New York firm alone has bought up ten thousand and blouses in the Philadelphia market to uniform the veterans of the Empire State. Let the Democracy tremble. By regiments and brigades sped, divisional and corps, the world over, and the world will never be forgotten by those that witness the scene. Their parents and friends will not, surely, forget it, for the remembrance has the endorsement of the best of the cities and towns where it has been exhibited. Admittance for adults 25 cents, for children 15 cents.

Panorama at the M. E. Church, Beaver, Thursday Evening, Oct. 1st, 1863.—This is to prove one of the most instructive and enter-taining exhibitions that has ever been offered to our citizens in many days. It makes use of the principles of perspective, which now afford so much pleasure to our refined taste, lighting up the instrument and illustrations known to science.

The displaying scenes are peculiarly interesting, and will never be forgotten by those that witness them. The scene parents and friends will not, surely, forget it, for the remembrance has the endorsement of the best of the cities and towns where it has been exhibited.

Admittance for adults 25 cents, for children 15 cents.

How Children Improve by Studying Better.

This is a subject which has occupied my attention a great deal, of late, in the past few days, and before I have time to do more than touch upon it, I will now present my study of it, commencing with an expository cause, yet distinguishing themselves by gallantry, even though it is a subject of disgrace. In that contest for which they are sought to be disengaged and exiled from their homes—in that contest they proved themselves to be our own." Colonel Dick de Hart, of Indiana, in a speech at Indianapolis, gave an answer to Blair in the recitation of the following stirring lines:

The loyal blue and the traitor gray
Are in their great sleepings.
Sleep on, ye sons of earth, and weep,
And wail to the storm cloud weeping.
But wail not for the lost, for the lost
Will never be found again.

The loyal blue and the traitor gray
Fall in a fearful fray.

God bless America, our land—

We do not love the gray.

We do not love the gray.

What is the truth? Is it that we believe that the traitor gray is bad?
