PORTRY. Lab a but The Perplexed Housekeeper's Soliloguy

BY MRS. F. D. GAGE. I wish I had dozen pairs
Of hands this very minute;
I'd soon put all these things to rights—
The very duce is in it.

Here's a big washing to be tone, a time pair of hands to to it; Sheets, shirts and stockings, coats and pants, How will I e'er get through it? Dinner to get for six or more, No loaf left o'er from Sunday, And baby cross as he can be— He's always so on Monday.

And there's the cream 'its getting sour, And must forthwith be churning, And here's Bob wants a button on.— Which way shall I be turning.

'Tis time the meat was in the pot.
The bread was worked for baking.
The clothes were taken from the boil—
On dear't the baby's waking!

Hush, baby dear? there, hush-sh-sh t I wish ha'd sleep a little, Till I could run and get some wood, To hurry up the kettle. Oh, dear! o'1 dear! if P—comes heme, And finds things in this bother, He'll just begin and tell me all About his tidy mother,

How nice her kitchen used to be. Her dinner always ready Exactly when the noon-bell rang— Hush, hush, dear little Freddie.

And then will come some hasty word, Right out before I'm thinking— They say that linsty words from wives Set sober men to drinking.

Now isn't that a great idea.
That men should take to sinning.
Because a weary, half-sick wife
Can't always antile so winning

When I was young I used to earn
My living without much trouble;
Had clothes and pocket money too,
And hours of leisure double.

I never dreamed of such a fate.

When I a-lass! was courted—
Wife, mether, nurse, seamstress, cook, house keeper, chambermald, hundress, Calry-woman and scrub generally, doing the work for six, For the sake of being supported!

Woman's Work.

Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, of Elmira, New York, has this to say: "I declare that the woman who is able to systematize and carry on smoothly the work of an ordinary family, illustrates higher sagacity than is called for by seven-eights of the confusion of tasks.
