"Then perhaps I can see his wife?"

"I think it very doubtful, but I will go and see."

"You repulsed? Did you give your name and inform her of your relation to her husband?"

The servant withdrew without askingth old man to enter, though the day was very cold, and his clothing seemed to be hardly sufficient to protect him from its inclemency.

Mrs. Beaumont was reclining on a fauteuil in a room handsomely fur-"You repulsed? Did you give your name and inform her of your of life must be spent in the eternal solitudes where silence was broken only by the wild winds of the forest, or the dismal howl of the rord or the river over the sharp rocks, or the dismal howl of the red mouthed wolf afar in the wilderness. The lady descended, fully prepared to give the visitor a frigid sception.

"I'm not mistaken," said the old man, with feeling. "It's Alexander's wife."

in her lap, his great eyes fixed on her face.

She tore open a vein in her arm with her scissors, and made him drink the blood. Anything she said to calm the wild, wistful yearning of his eyes. The boy rose: he sat and peered through the darkness.

"Mamma," said he, "papa is coming, I felt him touch me,"
She wept at the mockery and drew the child frantically to her bosom.

The night was fair—lit up by the new moon.
