

The Beaver Argus.

FOR GOVERNOR, 1868. JOHN W. GEARY.

The people are disposed to take care of Gov. Geary, and what is better still, they are not backward in their denunciations of those who are here in the way of a public meeting.

Resolved, That we endorse the administration of General Geary, and recommend him for re-nomination, in opposition to the "Ring" now forming to defeat him, on account of his honesty and independence.

The nomination by the President and confirmation by the Senate of Moses L. Grinnell, of New-York, as Collector of Customs in that city, has excited the most intense indignation.

ADVICE from San Francisco, March 25th, state that immense discoveries of gold in placers are reported on the main land, one hundred miles from Kodiak Island, latitude 61 deg. north, longitude 150 deg. west of Greenwich.

At the Cabinet meeting, held on Friday one week ago, the subject of the various official positions, at home and abroad, was considered.

On last Thursday the Senate of Pennsylvania assented to the adoption of the 25th Amendment.

When it does arrive the Democrats will be found making every effort to outwit the Administration.

GEN. GRANT has signed the bills to strengthen the public credit and to secure civil rights to all the people of the District of Columbia.

THE Meridian (Miss.) Chronicle has some good counsel for the young men of the State.

Several expeditions from the United States, well supplied with arms, are known to have landed on Cuban shores within the past few days and joined the rebel armies.

A YOUNG MAN named Henry Koehler, supposed to have been successful in a love affair, hung himself from a tree at Hanover borough on Friday.

THE Public Finances. The public finances appear to be in a very satisfactory condition.

TEMPERATURE OF OFFICE ACT. There is a great trouble in Congress, just now, as to the disposition which shall be made of the Tenure of Office Act.

On the 25th inst. the House of Representatives in the Senate amendment to the tenure of office act, which elicited a warm discussion.

As indicative of the popular sentiment of the United States, we give below the resolutions adopted in New York on last Friday night.

Resolved, That the present struggle of the Cubans for independence and self government, belongs in the same category with the American Revolution of 1776.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Resolved, That the Cuban cause is just, and that the wrongs against which the Cubans have revolted are such as to arouse the indignation of mankind.

Forty-First Congress.

MONDAY, March 22, 1868. SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

MONDAY, March 22, 1868. SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

SENATE.—The reading of the report of the Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the States, was continued.

NEWS SUMMARY.

In Blair county the fruit and grain crops are promising.

SEVERAL persons have been lately bitten by mad dogs in Norristown.

SEVEN hundred poles, and perhaps more, have been killed in Chester county this season.

THE Roman Catholic Coadjutor, are going to erect a church for themselves during the approaching summer.

MISS Crouthamel, of Lancaster, was burned to death on Tuesday evening last week by the explosion of a lamp she was carrying.

ONE hundred and twenty-six students graduated in Pottsville, Pa., at the commencement of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN barrels of contraband whiskey were seized in the turret of a house on the Harrisburg turnpike, near Columbia, on the 14th inst.

WILLIAMSON claims to have a man, heavy and strong aged 38, whose father, by no means decrepit, is living in Maryland, aged 120.

A YOUNG man named Minshull was associated with Xenia, Ill., with three thousand dollars belonging to a recently married wife.

PAINFUL & SCHIZZLIN, private bankers, of Buffalo, have dissolved their partnership, assets $1,000, L. C. Dupleman is assignee.

THE Indians on the Upper Missouri Reservation express great dissatisfaction with the manner in which their treatment are being carried out.

HON. E. B. Washburne, our new Minister to France, arrived in Chicago Friday morning and left for his home in Genoa on the evening of the 20th.

THE State of Iowa may be regarded as in an excellent financial condition. It does not owe a cent, and has a surplus of six hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars.

AN MAN named Evans cut the throat of James Hickox, at Centre Hill, Connecticut, on Monday last. The murderer was arrested, and says he killed Hickox for criminal intimacy with his wife.

MAYOR POPPINO, of Providence, R. I., is charged with misappropriating $15,000 of the city's money, and there is much excitement in consequence. An investigating committee is looking into the matter.

LAST week a Mrs. Patterson, residing near the Lackawanna mine, Luzerne county, went into the woods to hunt her cow, and was not only failed to find but was frozen to death.

AT Beson, Wednesday night, a young man named Pine shot a Miss Howard, and then shot himself. The latter's love is supposed to be the cause. Both were aged about twenty, and were respectively connected.

THE dwelling house of Miss Ellen Cheney, in Beson, was burned by lightning on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $120 in money composed a portion of the contents.

THE Association of Lake Underwriters against "Grand Old Man" Insurance Companies doing business at Toronto without depositing the necessary amount with the Receiver General.

THE dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Dean of Junius township, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, and to the relief of one of his daughters, a young lady eighteen years of age, perished in the flames.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

NEWS SUMMARY.

In Blair county the fruit and grain crops are promising.

SEVERAL persons have been lately bitten by mad dogs in Norristown.

SEVEN hundred poles, and perhaps more, have been killed in Chester county this season.

THE Roman Catholic Coadjutor, are going to erect a church for themselves during the approaching summer.

MISS Crouthamel, of Lancaster, was burned to death on Tuesday evening last week by the explosion of a lamp she was carrying.

ONE hundred and twenty-six students graduated in Pottsville, Pa., at the commencement of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN barrels of contraband whiskey were seized in the turret of a house on the Harrisburg turnpike, near Columbia, on the 14th inst.

WILLIAMSON claims to have a man, heavy and strong aged 38, whose father, by no means decrepit, is living in Maryland, aged 120.

A YOUNG man named Minshull was associated with Xenia, Ill., with three thousand dollars belonging to a recently married wife.

PAINFUL & SCHIZZLIN, private bankers, of Buffalo, have dissolved their partnership, assets $1,000, L. C. Dupleman is assignee.

THE Indians on the Upper Missouri Reservation express great dissatisfaction with the manner in which their treatment are being carried out.

HON. E. B. Washburne, our new Minister to France, arrived in Chicago Friday morning and left for his home in Genoa on the evening of the 20th.

THE State of Iowa may be regarded as in an excellent financial condition. It does not owe a cent, and has a surplus of six hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars.

AN MAN named Evans cut the throat of James Hickox, at Centre Hill, Connecticut, on Monday last. The murderer was arrested, and says he killed Hickox for criminal intimacy with his wife.

MAYOR POPPINO, of Providence, R. I., is charged with misappropriating $15,000 of the city's money, and there is much excitement in consequence. An investigating committee is looking into the matter.

LAST week a Mrs. Patterson, residing near the Lackawanna mine, Luzerne county, went into the woods to hunt her cow, and was not only failed to find but was frozen to death.

AT Beson, Wednesday night, a young man named Pine shot a Miss Howard, and then shot himself. The latter's love is supposed to be the cause. Both were aged about twenty, and were respectively connected.

THE dwelling house of Miss Ellen Cheney, in Beson, was burned by lightning on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $120 in money composed a portion of the contents.

THE Association of Lake Underwriters against "Grand Old Man" Insurance Companies doing business at Toronto without depositing the necessary amount with the Receiver General.

THE dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Dean of Junius township, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, and to the relief of one of his daughters, a young lady eighteen years of age, perished in the flames.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

NEWS SUMMARY.

In Blair county the fruit and grain crops are promising.

SEVERAL persons have been lately bitten by mad dogs in Norristown.

SEVEN hundred poles, and perhaps more, have been killed in Chester county this season.

THE Roman Catholic Coadjutor, are going to erect a church for themselves during the approaching summer.

MISS Crouthamel, of Lancaster, was burned to death on Tuesday evening last week by the explosion of a lamp she was carrying.

ONE hundred and twenty-six students graduated in Pottsville, Pa., at the commencement of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN barrels of contraband whiskey were seized in the turret of a house on the Harrisburg turnpike, near Columbia, on the 14th inst.

WILLIAMSON claims to have a man, heavy and strong aged 38, whose father, by no means decrepit, is living in Maryland, aged 120.

A YOUNG man named Minshull was associated with Xenia, Ill., with three thousand dollars belonging to a recently married wife.

PAINFUL & SCHIZZLIN, private bankers, of Buffalo, have dissolved their partnership, assets $1,000, L. C. Dupleman is assignee.

THE Indians on the Upper Missouri Reservation express great dissatisfaction with the manner in which their treatment are being carried out.

HON. E. B. Washburne, our new Minister to France, arrived in Chicago Friday morning and left for his home in Genoa on the evening of the 20th.

THE State of Iowa may be regarded as in an excellent financial condition. It does not owe a cent, and has a surplus of six hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars.

AN MAN named Evans cut the throat of James Hickox, at Centre Hill, Connecticut, on Monday last. The murderer was arrested, and says he killed Hickox for criminal intimacy with his wife.

MAYOR POPPINO, of Providence, R. I., is charged with misappropriating $15,000 of the city's money, and there is much excitement in consequence. An investigating committee is looking into the matter.

LAST week a Mrs. Patterson, residing near the Lackawanna mine, Luzerne county, went into the woods to hunt her cow, and was not only failed to find but was frozen to death.

AT Beson, Wednesday night, a young man named Pine shot a Miss Howard, and then shot himself. The latter's love is supposed to be the cause. Both were aged about twenty, and were respectively connected.

THE dwelling house of Miss Ellen Cheney, in Beson, was burned by lightning on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $120 in money composed a portion of the contents.

THE Association of Lake Underwriters against "Grand Old Man" Insurance Companies doing business at Toronto without depositing the necessary amount with the Receiver General.

THE dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Dean of Junius township, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, and to the relief of one of his daughters, a young lady eighteen years of age, perished in the flames.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

NEWS SUMMARY.

In Blair county the fruit and grain crops are promising.

SEVERAL persons have been lately bitten by mad dogs in Norristown.

SEVEN hundred poles, and perhaps more, have been killed in Chester county this season.

THE Roman Catholic Coadjutor, are going to erect a church for themselves during the approaching summer.

MISS Crouthamel, of Lancaster, was burned to death on Tuesday evening last week by the explosion of a lamp she was carrying.

ONE hundred and twenty-six students graduated in Pottsville, Pa., at the commencement of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN barrels of contraband whiskey were seized in the turret of a house on the Harrisburg turnpike, near Columbia, on the 14th inst.

WILLIAMSON claims to have a man, heavy and strong aged 38, whose father, by no means decrepit, is living in Maryland, aged 120.

A YOUNG man named Minshull was associated with Xenia, Ill., with three thousand dollars belonging to a recently married wife.

PAINFUL & SCHIZZLIN, private bankers, of Buffalo, have dissolved their partnership, assets $1,000, L. C. Dupleman is assignee.

THE Indians on the Upper Missouri Reservation express great dissatisfaction with the manner in which their treatment are being carried out.

HON. E. B. Washburne, our new Minister to France, arrived in Chicago Friday morning and left for his home in Genoa on the evening of the 20th.

THE State of Iowa may be regarded as in an excellent financial condition. It does not owe a cent, and has a surplus of six hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars.

AN MAN named Evans cut the throat of James Hickox, at Centre Hill, Connecticut, on Monday last. The murderer was arrested, and says he killed Hickox for criminal intimacy with his wife.

MAYOR POPPINO, of Providence, R. I., is charged with misappropriating $15,000 of the city's money, and there is much excitement in consequence. An investigating committee is looking into the matter.

LAST week a Mrs. Patterson, residing near the Lackawanna mine, Luzerne county, went into the woods to hunt her cow, and was not only failed to find but was frozen to death.

AT Beson, Wednesday night, a young man named Pine shot a Miss Howard, and then shot himself. The latter's love is supposed to be the cause. Both were aged about twenty, and were respectively connected.

THE dwelling house of Miss Ellen Cheney, in Beson, was burned by lightning on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $120 in money composed a portion of the contents.

THE Association of Lake Underwriters against "Grand Old Man" Insurance Companies doing business at Toronto without depositing the necessary amount with the Receiver General.

THE dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Dean of Junius township, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, and to the relief of one of his daughters, a young lady eighteen years of age, perished in the flames.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

NEWS SUMMARY.

In Blair county the fruit and grain crops are promising.

SEVERAL persons have been lately bitten by mad dogs in Norristown.

SEVEN hundred poles, and perhaps more, have been killed in Chester county this season.

THE Roman Catholic Coadjutor, are going to erect a church for themselves during the approaching summer.

MISS Crouthamel, of Lancaster, was burned to death on Tuesday evening last week by the explosion of a lamp she was carrying.

ONE hundred and twenty-six students graduated in Pottsville, Pa., at the commencement of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

SEVENTEEN barrels of contraband whiskey were seized in the turret of a house on the Harrisburg turnpike, near Columbia, on the 14th inst.

WILLIAMSON claims to have a man, heavy and strong aged 38, whose father, by no means decrepit, is living in Maryland, aged 120.

A YOUNG man named Minshull was associated with Xenia, Ill., with three thousand dollars belonging to a recently married wife.

PAINFUL & SCHIZZLIN, private bankers, of Buffalo, have dissolved their partnership, assets $1,000, L. C. Dupleman is assignee.

THE Indians on the Upper Missouri Reservation express great dissatisfaction with the manner in which their treatment are being carried out.

HON. E. B. Washburne, our new Minister to France, arrived in Chicago Friday morning and left for his home in Genoa on the evening of the 20th.

THE State of Iowa may be regarded as in an excellent financial condition. It does not owe a cent, and has a surplus of six hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars.

AN MAN named Evans cut the throat of James Hickox, at Centre Hill, Connecticut, on Monday last. The murderer was arrested, and says he killed Hickox for criminal intimacy with his wife.

MAYOR POPPINO, of Providence, R. I., is charged with misappropriating $15,000 of the city's money, and there is much excitement in consequence. An investigating committee is looking into the matter.

LAST week a Mrs. Patterson, residing near the Lackawanna mine, Luzerne county, went into the woods to hunt her cow, and was not only failed to find but was frozen to death.

AT Beson, Wednesday night, a young man named Pine shot a Miss Howard, and then shot himself. The latter's love is supposed to be the cause. Both were aged about twenty, and were respectively connected.

THE dwelling house of Miss Ellen Cheney, in Beson, was burned by lightning on the 25th inst. The loss is estimated at $120 in money composed a portion of the contents.

THE Association of Lake Underwriters against "Grand Old Man" Insurance Companies doing business at Toronto without depositing the necessary amount with the Receiver General.

THE dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Dean of Junius township, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, and to the relief of one of his daughters, a young lady eighteen years of age, perished in the flames.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

THE senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat has had his dog killed and his winter cabbage, nine hens and a rooster stolen from him. It is pleasant to know that the man prides himself on the accuracy of his aim, and says he doesn't think there is any more harm in shooting a snark than in shooting a dog.

NEWS SUMMARY.