Treasure, F. BEAVER, PA., April 19, 1809. EDITOR ARGUS:—In last week's Local I noticed an article, in regard to so much intoxication among the "young bloods" of our saintly town, it appears from the said article, there is "something rotten Alliance Shovel Plow. Patent Aug. 20, '61. Re-Issued Aug. 11, 1868. in Denmark." Such really is the case. We would call your attention to our Double Shovel Plow, which we think, without doubt, excels anything now in the market for the purpose designed. Its principal points of excellence are that it There is an article sold in our town, called cider, and if the persons who make such a stir about the matter, would examine this cider, they would discover the cause of the disturbances at church. suppers and exhibitions. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, har where the follicies are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application, g Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a
