FOR: GOVERNOR, 1860, JOHN W. GEARY.

MRS: SALLIE ELIZABETH LIN-COLN, step mother of the late Presi-I dent Lincoln, died at a very advanced age in Coles county, Ill., on the 19th of April. Mr. Lincoln was reared by her, his own mother having died when he was very young. She was much attached to and very proud of her illustrious step son. For many years past she had lived with a grandson, Mr. John Hall, a farmer in good circumstances.

A Kansas City dispatch of May 5th surveying party on the Fort Scott lished this scurrillous extract: railroad was attacked by an armed body of settlers on what is known as the Jay-Joy purchase. The bill legalizing the issuing of the eight per cent. scrip of the Central road received similar action.

-The M. E. Church South Sunday St. Louis, May 5.—From a gen School Convention met Thursday I the First Methodist Church in St Louis, and was organized by the elec-tion of Rev. Geo. T. Hoagland as President. The Sunday Schools of this denomination were reported to be numerously attended and in a flourishing condition. The Conven-tion of Bishops also met, but their proceedings were private.

—A letter from Anna, Union county, Illinois, dated the 5th, says that place was visited by a fearful hall storm the previous evening. The hail stones measured from one to two and a half inches in diameter and not a few as large as a man's fist. The ground was covered in some places two feet does. The fruit has been ground was covered in some piaces two feet deep. The fruit has been almost entierly destroyed. Strawber-ries were just begining to ripen, with excellent prospect. Now there will not be half a crop. Nearly all the peaches are knocked off. How far the storm extended is not known. -A number of editors of Ameri-
