The school at present numbers 125-15 having been discharged thring the last quarter, by reason of the expira-tion of the respective terms, for which they were admitted. The pupils appear to be making fair advancement in their studies under the guidance of faithful and experienced tenchers. We were pleased to see the children of both sexes looking healthy and cheerful, and seemlooking healthy and cheerful, and seemingly well contented and happy; and were gratified to learn that not a single death has over occurred in the institution-that no prevailing disease has eve broken out, and that no case of seriou liness at present exists. These gratify ing facts we attribute to a kind Providence, to the substantial nature of the food used, to well ventilated sleeping apartments, and to the regularity of the ours and habits rigidly enjoined and enforced.

In conclusion, we cannot but express the conviction that Mr. Taylor and his amiable wife and daughters, seem peculiarly fitted for the arduous and responsible positions to which they have been called, and from our observation, w have no hesitation in giving it as our HANOVER June 25, 1869. Philiar Argus-Having spent two days. the 16th and 17th of this month, at the village of Clinton, in Allegheny county, witnessing the closing exercises of the spring term of the Clinton select school aught by Messrs. Irons and Yeazey, both of Bayor county, I thought a brief to their Large and Choice Assortment of notice of said achool, perhaps, would be Goods, embracing: notice of said school, perhaps, would be interesting to your readers, especially as a good number of the students were fro is county. The school was opened the latter part of March with Prof. J. D. Irons principal and Mr. John H, Years assistant. Mr. Irons is a grad Wilmington, is a good scholar, and possesses fine administrative abilities. Hi associate, Mr. Veasey, is an experienced and successful teacher. Fifty-two stu dents were in attendance, and during the examination, the committee, (Rev. Hun-ter and Dr. Easton of Allegheny, Joseph Roll, esq., of Washington, and J. Algebra, Geometry, and in the Langua The recitations were creditable to both pupils and teachers, showing carnestness in the work. The exercises were not "cut and dried" for the occasion, as is sometimes the case, but consisted of a review of the work done during the past erm. In both the English and the Classical department thoroughness is a charactoristic of this school, and it offers to young persons an admirable opportunity for qualifying themselves for ing in our common schools or for preparing to enter college.
