Henry leas by Floor Ope of the Brighton for some time, visited an this soul, in the destruction of the Worlen Pictory. From Mr. David Siof the neutlementy firm, we learn the indicating particulars in regard to the fire, building, &c.

Fire was first noticed in the carding room, which occupied the entire sec foor, shortly after two o'clock a. m. Sunday. In three hours the entire build-ing, with all its conjents of shawls, yarn, which was two years old—was consum How the fire originated is as much a mystery now, as it was then. There was fire used but in one place at this time of the year, and that was in the basement of the dye house, under the boiler, and at 21 o'clock, p. m., on Saturday, the fire was taken from there and wheeled into the creek, falling into the water, the creek being high. The loss will be about $65,000, on which there was an insurance of $21,500, leaving a loss of $43,500. Of his amount, $4,000 was in the Cumberland Valley Mutual, and $2,500 in the Columbia, through Sampson's agency; Mr. N. H.
