I bout Sorghum. Mr. Thomas out of Industry to cultivated some Chinese sugar cane, the past season, and has just converted the juice into sorghum. he callon of it which he sent to the Ar ars office, convinces us that himself and family understand how to make a good article. It is indeed a fine sample and we are under many obligations to Mr. H. for his courte printer.

Our ever attentive friend Richard Walton, esq., of the same tp., has placed u under renewed obligations to him for some of the sorghum made at his residence a short time ago. Like his neighbor's, Mr. Hoyt, it was exceedingly easy to take. As sorghumists, the citizens of Industry township appear to merit the championship.

At the carnest solicitation of the Ladies Working Society of the M. E. Church of this place, Rev. Jas. Hollingshead will deliver a locture in the Court House on Thanksgiving ovening, Nov. 18th, 1859, upon the "Traces of Ancient, Powerful and Civilized Nations on our Continent," This locture was delivered for the first time in Manchester last week, to a crowded house, and received high encominums of praise. The theme is an interesting one, and Mr. Hollingshead has devoted time and labor to his researches, and we are sure overy one who attends will feel amply repaid in the instruction and entertainment afforded. We hope to see a crowded house. The proceeds will be applied to the new church enterprise, E. J. Allison, Sec'y.
