The New Railroad .- The matter of a new line of railroad from this city via Woodville, Tiffin, New London, Wooster, Massillon, Canton, New Lisbon, O., and Beaver, Pa., to Pittsburgh, was brought before our railroad trustees on Saturday last by Hon. Martin Welker and Gen. Harvey Howard, of Wooster. These gentlemen express great confi-dence in both the feasibility and importance of the project, and gave assurance 3 of strong local support. Active steps are already being taken towards the organization of a company for its prosecution, and an early survey is regarded as certain. The Pittsburgh connection, important as it would be to the road and to Toledo, is not the only alvantage to be derived from it. At that point it is de-signed to connect with the Connellaville Fashion, opposite U. P. Seminary, Bea- road, being a branch of the Baltimore & Ohio from Cumberland, Md., to be comploted this year. The distance between Toledo and Pittsburgh would by this route be shortened some 25 miles, while that to Baltimore would be reduced from 629 to 550, being a saving of 75 miles

The importance to Toledo of a good Pitts-burgh connection has frequently been referred to in these columns. furnishing as it would, not only improved advant ities, but also opening to us the choice Baltimore. Hence we need hardly express our interest in the project propos ed, which has the additional high rec-ommendation of placing Toledo in connection with several of the most important points in Northern Ohio, and opening to us most valuable coal facilities.-
