THE Legislative Record swindle we are afraid, will still go through the Legislature. The vote in the Senate last week shows pretty clearly that the Telegraph and Patriot editors are in partnership in the job, and that one is to operate with Republican members, and the other with Democratic members, in order to get the swindle through. If they succeed, the operation will cost the tax payers not a penny less than $100,000. The "job" is in such a shape now as to fore becomes the duty of honest Democrats and honest Republicans niike, to protest most emphatically against the revival of what is known and unequivocal in his declarations. as the "Bergner Iniquity."
