

The Beaver Argus.

W. WALKER, Editor and Proprietor. BEAVER, PA., MARCH 23, 1870.

THE President on Friday morning last, signed the joint resolution appropriating one year's salary of an associate Justice of the Supreme Court for the benefit of the widow and children of the late E. M. Stanton.

INFORMATION received by Vincent Colyer from Gen. Crook, commanding the Department of Indian Territory, that the larger part of the Indians of the reservation had received their annuity. The quantity of goods issued, though not large, is of superior quality, and well satisfied.

THE Commission of Internal Revenue was informed on Friday that Gen. Bennett, a former supervisor of North and South Carolina, and one Loring, an accomplice, were arrested at Atlantic City, Iowa, on the 14th instant, by Gen. Clarke, U. S. Marshal for Iowa, and taken to Marshall for trial for alleged conspiracy to defraud under the United States revenue laws.

THE Board of Managers of the National Asylum for disabled soldiers, who have just finished their labors in Washington city on Friday last, they provided for several important improvements looking to the better government of asylums and greater comfort and happiness of disabled soldiers.

TWELVE colored members of the Georgia Legislature visited Vice President Colfax at the Capitol on last Friday morning. They were introduced by Senator Sumner.

WHILE the Georgia bill was before the Senate on last Wednesday, Senator Revels (colored) of Mississippi, took the floor and occupied the attention of Senators about an hour. A great many persons in and about the Capitol anticipated this speech of the colored citizens of their State into the power of rebels. In reply the Vice President frankly stated he did not believe the existing Legislature of Georgia could perpetrate itself, and said his sympathies were with the freedmen, and he hoped to see them secured in their rights.

On last Friday we received the final number of the new daily. It is called the "Argus," and presents a very neat and up-to-date appearance. Its editors have the right ring, and we make our guess it does not make its mark soon in the politics of this State. We wish it success.

THE annual meeting of the Pittsburgh Conference of the M. E. Church is to assemble at day (Wednesday morning March 23rd) in Johnstown, sixty miles east of Pittsburgh on the Pennsylvania railroad. Bishop James will preside. Over two hundred ministers are expected to be present.

THE distance of the municipality of Richmond, Va., between the residence of Mayor Ellison and his constant Mayor Calhoun at the residence at last address. A dispatch dated Richmond March 20th midnight, says: The dense crowd of blacks standing all day around Calhoun's headquarters at the third station house blocked up the streets that to-night Mayor Ellison determined to clear them away. As soon as the crowd proceeded a force of men there who proceeded to clear Jefferson street. They were first upon the negroes, and Richard Dush, a member of the special force, instantly killed, and Capt. William Knox wounded. The Ellison force then fired on the crowd, many of the negroes were killed, and the negroes carried their dead and wounded, if there were any with them. The police succeeded in clearing the street, and at this time all is quiet. Dush's body was taken to the City Hall.

There was a good deal of joking at Washington on Friday last, at the expense of Senator Sumner and Gen. Butler, over the bearing of the following clause in the Texas bill, introduced by the Hon. Mr. Fessenden: "That this act shall not be construed to deprive any person of his property, unless such person shall have been convicted of a crime by a court of law, and such conviction shall be a bar to his admission as a State." On that day this came up in the Senate, and Mr. Sumner was so anxious to have the bill passed that he suggested action without formal reference to committee. The following extract from the Joint resolution annexing Texas, approved March 1st, 1845: "And such States as may be formed out of that portion of said territory lying south of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes, north latitude, commonly known as the Missouri compromise line, shall be admitted into the Union with or without slavery, as the people of each State asking admission may desire."

W. W. CORNELL, the well known merchant, died at New York on Thursday last.

This Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Record, in a long article of the 20th inst., speaking of the passage of the omnibus bill, says: Some severe comments have been made by parties, both in and out of the Legislature, with reference to the hasty manner in which this measure has been rushed through the Legislature. "True it is that the bill has been introduced and passed in a hasty manner, but it is not to be supposed that the Legislature has been corrupted by bribery, or that the members have been bribed to pass it. It is now next to certain that the Bingham amendment will be strictly enforced, and that the House will undoubtedly concur. For this result the Georgia rebels have one to thank but themselves. In their exclusion of joy they forgot decency, and began again their old game of threats of personal violence and attacks on private character. The Georgia rebels have one to thank but themselves.
