We clip the tollowing notice from the Lawrence Co. Joinnat: —The literary and musical entertain-ment at the Beaver Seminary and Justi-tite came off at the appointed time, with marked success. Both teachers and pu-pils acquitted triefinacings in a manner creditable to the institution. Solid of the pupils in their productions gave evi-dence of genus which, if developed, would enable them to make their mark in the world. The musical department, conducted by Prof. Albert Beater, gave more than usual satisfaction to the su-dience – There is nothing so enlivening
