I went, touching his hat at intervals, ejaculating compassionately, 'Keb, sur, you'd better 'ev a keb—you did indeed,' and so exposing me to a thousand times as much notice as I should otherwise have attracted. Little boys, having their attention especially aroused by the cabman, considered the occasion favorable for a demonstration, which threatened to take the form of shying all manner of dirt; and older persons who encountered me, either appeared to consider that I had mistaken a bright day in June for the 5th of November, day in June for the 5th of November, and laughed derisively; or regarded me with such looks as the priest and the Levite must have bestowed upon the poor wounded man who had fal-len amongst thieves, and evidently set me down as a thing to be avoided was dressed as a gentleman, was con-siderable bigger in every way than 1, and was sitting between two wearers of bonnets, whom we may charitably assume to have been his wife and his like the plague. Only a few girls and matrons, who saiffed a wedding from afar, and consequently felt a pl. asant titliation after their kind, smiled a tacit approval:

At last I reached my lodgings, and breathed freely. I placed my precious bouquet in water and sat down, and as I do, from a constitutional weakmother-in-law. At my approach he showed some slight perturbation, which led me to hope that he suffered, breathed freely. I placed my precious bouquet in water and sat down, and gazed at it, and meditated. And as I meditated, it occurred to me that Arabella, who had not parted with her bouquet without some few minstrated reflection, had ultimately given it to me with a design. She had sighed a little sigh, and had given mea very peculiar glance after she had committed her flowers to my keeping; and now, as I sat and pondered, the meaning of the sigh and the glance was, I flattered myself, intelligible, Arabella was not indifferent to me. I had tried to elicit whether she were or not, but could not get anything definite from her; but now I. could interpret what was in her heart. 'You bachelors,' she had doubtless thought, 'yo and banish the toughts waskened by the event of this morning by means of your selfish dissipation, whillst we maidens have to sit at home, and mope and gnaw our hearts, and feed on tender recollections, and nourish scarcely acknowledged hopes; but I have discovered a way of keeping one bachelor in order; he dares not go among those who would scoff at my gift; and by the fate that befalls my bouquet, I shall know how he estimates the giver.' And now a shiver came over mens I remembered that I was engaged to dine out; Arisbella could not surely have intended that I was engaged to dine out; Arisbella could not surely have intended that I was engaged to dine out; Arisbella could not surely have intended that I was engaged to dine out; Arisbella could not surely have intended at the destruction which was being wrought upon my bounded the face of my adversary, who staggered back against a tree, and into the face of my adversary, who staggered back against a tree, and into the face of my adversary, who staggered back against a tree, and no of them promptly scratched.

Her words were, "Wherever you go,' and my promise would be ratisfactorily fluifilled if I carried the bouquet into the house alive. Her words were, "Wherever you go,' and my promise would be ratisfactorily fluifilled if I carried the bouquet into the house with me, and left it in safe castody;

To the man who took my overcoat, therefore, I committed the flowers, with the strictest injunctions to take particular care of them; and he answered fervently that he would, but gave me a' leer which would have justified a brauch of the peace. And I couldn't help thinking, during dinner, that the wretch had made confidence to himself, and it is about his constitutional weakness (and his kneed did really trembed the same and the would, but give me a' leer which would have justified a brauch of the peace. And she married the man who is popularly known as Another. Eagerly I scanned the surrounding land, hoping to observe some one whose attention I might attract. I skated around the edges of the ice and halloed as londly as possible, but the wind made it impossible for me to be heard at any great distance, and

Wonderful Escape. In a letter from the master of the ship Surprise dated at Shanghal, China, February 11, and just received at New York, occurs a story of escape at New York, occurs a story of escape from apparently certain death at sea, scarcely less strange than the boldest of Captain Marryatt's or of Charles Rectle's invention. The Surprise sailed from New York October 6, 1839, for Shanghal. The captain writes:
