How to Catch all the Fish you Want.-Take the juice of smallage or ovage, and mix it with any kind of bait, Balt your hooks and go to fishing, and you will catch all the fish you need. A few drops of oil of rhodium is also good. Another.-Take cocculus indicus, pulverize, and mix with dough; then seatter broadcast over the water. This will be seized with great avidity by the fish, which will so completely intexicate them that they will turn belly up on the surface of the water by hundreds. Now have a boat ready, and pick up what you want, and put them in a tub of fresh wa-ter, and in a few minutes they will be all right again.

This was about the time of Burr's conspiracy and the deceased with some others visited a company of his men who had encamped on heir way down the Ohio River on the ground now occupied by the town of Sharon. From Beaver he moved to Greersburg (now Darlington) about the year 1807 where he lived up to the time of his death.

Connected thus long with our country what wonderful changes has he been permitted to witness in her history. He has seen her day of small things. But from these small beginnings he has seen her rise in power, influence and wealth, spreading her dominion far and wide and urning her wilderness into a fruitful field. He has seen her pass successfully through two wars; in one of which— Some of our people are leaving for the that of 1812-ho served for a time as Captain.
