ALISMA-Grayhairs are honorable we have read and heard from boyhood days; and yet no one, man or woman, seems to desire the honor of gray hairs. Raldness, too, is the dread of all who are threatened that way, and every effort is resorted to, to avoid it. Seward & Bentley's Alisma for the hair is said to be a other from Beaver Falls. The process capital preventive of either, and that it restores the hair to a healthy condition and to its original color.

Come to Grief.—The Pittsburgh pa pers of last Thursday inform us that "a fine looking young lady from Remington station."
