Decoration Day.—On next Mon lay we are called upon to strew with vers the graves of those who died while in the service of their country, or who have since been called to their long homes. Let us all try and be present on that occasion to bestow a floral offering. We believe the programme for the day will be as follows:

All the ex-soldiers, whether members of the G. A. R. or not, are requested to meet at 1 p. m., in the hall over Mr. Thos. Allison's store. The bruss bands of Rochester and New Brighton, which will take part in the ceremonies, will also soldier's orphans of the school at Phillipsburg and the citizens, including men, women and children, will assemble at the Court House at 1 p. m., after which they will be joined by the ex-soldiers present, and an address delivered by Rev. Locke. A procession will then be formed and the old gravevard visited at which place an address will be delivered by J.F. Drayo. esq. From there the column will move to the new cemetery and a closing ad dress pronounced by the Rev. D. P. Low planations. This is a superb work and ary. > SAMEEL W. REED, > Editor Argust - I notice in your leasts of May 18th a communication in regard to one of the candidates for County Commissioner, eulogizing to say is at least an unfair and unmanly mode of electroneering, tending to mar the good feeling which has existed between the several candidates during the canvass. The people of Beaver coun-ty duly appreciate the claims of the soldier, as a time and heretofore will surely testify. The soldier with one arm has as much time, and is a much in duty bound to canvass the several town-thips and boroughs of the county, and converse with the people and afford them an opportunity to judge for themselves of his "Intelligence, Morali ty." &c. as other candidates. Thus would be avoid the necessity of publishing a long certification purporting to come from an "Old Man," who, however, refuses to vouch for the abilities of his favorite candidate over his own signature. Persons who would wish to vouch for the qualifications of any particular candidate should not fea to give their name to the people, that they may be known and their testimony receive its proper weight, leaving no room to suspect that it is the production of some political wire-worker, who would sacrifice the interests of his party to accomplish his own purpose.

Voter of the South Side. The Cutworm is a great destroyer of cabbage and tomato plants, as well as corn and other vegetables; and any information as to how they may be pre-vented from cutting the plants even with the ground, will be of special interest to the gardener, at this particular time. A gentleman who has practiced transplanting cabbage, tomate and cauliflower, for the last twenty-five or thirty years, informs us that he winds round the stock of the plant to be set out, a piece of paper or a dock leaf in such a nanner as that about two inches will be below the surface of the soil and about the same above. This effectually secures them against the ravages of the worm, which always cuts the unprotected plant day evening, commencing at 81 o'clock on a level with the surface of the earth. snaoble and simple. Try it, we have.

-A cow belonging to Mr. Benedict of Butler township, Butler county, last week was delivered of a calf without a List of Applicants for License at June head. It was dead; and the cow died after the burth, Which Uncle Jake of the Herald thinks was befitting as "there are monstrosities enough with one head and two legs, without the cows bringing them forth with nary head and four legs.

-A man named Thomas Stewart was killed in a coal mine at West Elizabeth, Allegheny county, on Wednesday last, by the falling of a large mass of slate, Six colored men saw the accident, and went immediately to his rescue. They succeeded in getting him out alive, but he expired in a few minutes. The proprietors of the mine ordered a susper sion of all work until after the funeral.

SCOTT—In New Brighton on Saturday April 23d of consumption James Scott aged 21 years.

Brightly beamed Life's morn before him,
Sweet and boly were kartle ties,
But our Father in his wisdom,
Called him early to the skies.

We have lain him down within the coming to want for some time in the fu-ture. so short a time agone beat high with emotions of joyful hope. The hearts of loved ones are once more rent with bit ter anguish as they now look upon the vacant chair by the tireside and lister with a strange forgetful carnestness for the voice so lately hushed in death. 'In our Father's house are many man sions." Let us remember that his is a joyful change—that his voice so often attuned to the songs of Zion now warbles in sweetest melody that new song,—that those eyes which once spar-kled with youthful vigor though closed from all earthly scenes are now opened upon those of everlasting beauty in that heavenly home of eternal sunshine where the "pure in spirit" shall drink deep of Siloa's fountain of Life that flow by the throne of God. While we sympathize with a fond mother and loving ones in this sad bereavment there is a voice which speaks words of comfort to bleeding hearts,— which bids us cherish the fond hope of a happy re-union where life's fitful scenes are over:—When the transient gleam of ife no longer glow to allure, where un dying hopes and fadeless joys will bloom amidst the paradise of God.

"Oh! who would live alway, away fro Away from you licaven, that blissful abode

Where the anthems of rapture unccasingly roll, And the smile of the Lord is the fear of the soul,
