This statement is from an editorial in the last issue of the Beaver Radical, edited by M. Sl. Quay. It is the statement of one who took a very active part against Gen Irwin in the late contest for the State-Treasurership. The members of the Legislature named in thearticle, were therefore active in his interest. It is to be presumed that they were and are in consideration of these pledges they were paid $5,400 and $2,000 respectively. 3. That they violated their pledges at the bidding of their masters. We do not desire now and here either to defend Geo. K. Anderson, who is charged with bribing these men, or to condenn Mr. Mackey, in whose interest they accepted the bribes.
