COLONED HAWKING

ollows from Washington to the Chi-"flid you ever hear, of from Haw-kins it haids its not belitied to see the day. Tom Hawkins is the greatest duclist. in Kentucky. He is now Governor Stevenson's to become per-rhaps, fifty years of age, now, but ill one of the best shots in Kenstill ode of the heat shots in Kentucky, and has fixed up more quarrels and these a second connore nelses than any other man alive.

Personally, he is a gentle, truthful, faithful fellow, but he is deadly, when he has made up his mind ho eat somebody. Tom is one of the host of his class, the finished duelist of the South, always nice upon points of h, nor and prompt to advise any body to fight whom he thinks has been injured. His last appearance in proximity to the field of honor was occasioned by a mooted duel bo in proximity to the held of holds was occasioned by a mooted duel be-tween two disclaims if editors, which hever came to a short. People who hever came to a side. Feeple who knew him sent for Tom in case of a duel, just as you send for a physician and the preacher when you are sick. Ho was wounded at Beuna Vista, and he was with Henderson, Crittenden, Lopez and the rest when they invaded Cuba. During the war he was on Breckenridge's staff, and the affairs of private blood in which he has been engaged are inumerable.— For instance, he was Ben, Johnson's second when he'killed 'Tom White, Ind you ever hear of that? No! Oh! Tom Hawkins had to leave the State for some years after that duel. Old man White was there when Ben shot his son, and he

Washington to-night.' And with that the trains steamed contrary ways.

I found the matter at Washington that same ovening. The conspirators had arranged to force an insult upon Douglas, and then, if he challenged he would lose the vote of the North. If he refused no person in the South would touch him. The creature of the conspirators to insult Douglas was G. N. Fitch, of Indiana—still allive, I believe—and he had done it in exceptive session the day woman is not at all insane.

We arranged to try Douglas' courage by teiling him that the duel was to come off the next morning. Tom so to have a simple bearted fellow, raised objections to this, and refused to have anything to do with it. We entered Douglas' library and there he stood, with as pleasant a smile as I ever saw, waiting to hear the result.

'Mr. Douglas,' said I, 'how do you "Arr. Dougnes,' said 1, 'now do you feel?"

Very well. What's the news?

'You are to go to the field to-morrow morning at five o'clock, and fight with shot-guns.'

'Very well,' he said, 'make all the arrangements.'

was as I eversaw him again, and he was as I eversaw him—almost cheerful. Tom Hawkins could stand it no more. He said, 'Mr. Doughs, they have retracted.' they have retracted.

Douglas drew a sigh, whether of relief or regret I do not know. He was a splendid shot with a fowling piece, and he would have fought his weight in wild cats rather than be crowded out of the path of his ambition. He was the greatest leader any party ever had, to my mind.—

My Dear Young Friend:

I have just received your letter of the 23th uit. It is published in The Washington Chronicle of this morning. I do hope you will never think of giving up while you have health to stand the storm. I suffered quite as much when I first went to West any show of fear. A prompt and able reply when off duty will sometimes avail you. A pleasantsmile will win hearts to you. God, who allowed you to be born and live with the blood of the African in your velns, will bear less than the trusted in the profession.

The frequency of Kidney affections and the many complaints arising from disease of the Urinary Origins give occasion for much study and in vestigation of those difficulties. The Then there was a debate upon the proposition to abolish the mission: to restigation of those difficulties. The old and the young, the high and the proposition to abolish the mission: to these troublesome affections; from the diabetes of infants to the gout and gravel of old age, the much exposed laborer at his toll; to the fuxurious liver at his case. The first in the series of the lot of any practice, we have perhaps had: more experience in the treatment of these affections than usually falls to the lot of any practitioner in the same time. And it is in these affections more than any other that an examination of the urine is required, in order to understand the true nature of the disease. All urinary difficulties do not arise from gravel, nor do all gravelly indications arise from affection of the Kidneys, and it is by an examination of the wrine factors there should be a mission. Therefore there should be a mission to Rome.

Many defleate hadies have lived a life of suffering from some of these diseases, who might have had years of health had the complaint been understood by their physician.

We believe that we have troated more patients laboring under these difficulties than any other physician in the State of Pennsylvania, west of the Allegheny mountains, and do not he histate to say that we have cured a greater per centage, by one-fourth, of all our patients than has been done by any others.

These facts can be verified from our records. We seldom fail to relieve un patients of their sufferingal those diseases at once. From close attention and long and patient investigation, we have learned to know the precise found out exactly the kind of medical means of the place of the pla
