The work was extra, as I said before, the tickets were printed in the night, and I could not but understand that Mr. Quay wanted to know nothing about it. And any impression that I retained money which properly belonged to Mr. Quay in this transaction, does me great injustice, while any statement to that effect is wilfully false, malicious and in-

Mr. Wilson never informed me that h had not consulted Quay in regard to the first batch of tickets. And I knew that Rutan knew of it because he advised me I would do so. It is true as the Radical states that I regarded all the ticket printing I did for Mr Wilson as a private matter and not as the legitimate busi-ness of the Radical office. So I understood Mr. Quay to regard it, and acted accordingly. He did not then declare, se he does now, in favor of printing any style of ticket, called for. EDITOR :- I have just been on tour of inquiry relative to alleged illegel voting at the primary election, in May, in the borough of Phillipsburg and find on investigation, that every Democrat who wished, was permitted to vote the only test required being that he pledged himself to vote for such men, at the October election,—in case of thei omination-as he supported at the primary meeting. In the event his favor-ites were not nominated, he was at liberty to vote against the entire Republi can ticket; that is, vote Democrati throughout. This was the ruling of the judge at the primary election in May ind under this decision every Democra who wished to vote for Shurlock and shroads, were permitted to do so. This ruling of the Judge was a violation of he rule adopted by the County Com mittee, to govern in such cases. SEc. 2, of the Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Republican Primary Meetings, reads as follows:

"All who claim to be, and are recognized a members of the Republican party, legally entitle to vote at the wasting October election, and residents of the election districts where they propose dents of the election districts where they propose There can be little doubt in the mind
