JOHN COVODE-"Honest John" as he is sometimes called-left his home on last Friday for the Pacific coast, to be absent for a month or two. The Pittsburgh Commercial invites him to write a book while he is away, giving an Inside history of Pennsylvania politics for the past two years, and his candid opinion of the life and public services of Senator Cameron. Covode, however, we apprehend has well founded. no intention of becoming an author.

SENATOR CAMERON was stricken with paralysis on last Friday morning while in his room at a hotel in Baltimore. One of his arms and one side of his person were badly affected. and it was thought advisable to take him to his home at Harrisburg at once. Accordingly a special train was provided and he was taken from Baltimore, in charge of medical attendants and a few personal friends.

Why does not Quay bring a libel suit against his friend 'Bill-Kemble,' who 'blowed' on him for selling out Curtin? Kemble was the one who did the talking to Quay for the Camerons, on the Sunday preceding the organization of the Legislature in 1867. On the Monday following, Hon:

Alexander Adaire, of Philadelphis remonstrated with Quay against this political treason; and, from his room n the Brady House, proceeded to Gov. Curtin, and informed him that his especial friend, M. S. Quay, had sold him out. Quay says he does not propose to defend Gen. Cameron. This is simply said to hoodwink the public. I D.
