Lin Memphis John F. Thomas, a white man, and an ex-soldier of the Confederate army, was, in open church after the conclusion of the war, married ton Mrs. Christy, a woman of African descent, since which time the twain have lived as man and wife. On the 23d of June last, the parties were arrested on a charge of "cohabiting" tried and fined $25 each. The woman paid the fine; the man was subsequently released by the writ of habeas corpus, after being compelled to work in the chain-gang. He has now brought an action against the city of memphis, In the U.S. Circuit Court, for false imprisonment, laying his damages at $25,000. The law of the State of Tennessee prohibits the marriage of white and colored persons, but unquestionably, we think, such a statute is unconstitutional, and and so probably the Circuit Court will decide.
