The contract was confirmed. This is certainly an improvement on what we have had in that particular for a number of years, but it atrikes us that $14 per page is still a little by law.

a number of years, but it strikes us that $14 per page is still a little "steep." A TELEGRAM from Columbus, Ohio, ion last Friday, gave us the startling information that Col. G. J. Young, a member of the House of Representatives from Columbiana county, and editor of the Buckeye State, died suddenly that afternoon. As he entered the State House after dinner, he was attacked with hemorh-nge of the lungs. He was taken im-mediately to the office of the Comp-troller of the Treasury, where he died in a few minutes. Col. Young was Millitary Secretary of the late Gov-ernor Tod. The event cast a great gloom over the General 'Assembly. Col. Young was a faithful legislator, an honorable and laborious editor. an honorable and laborious editor, and his sudden death will be sincere-ly mourned by the editorial fraterni-ty. But they are lively girls, full of rolicsome fun, fond of any legitimate excitement and of adventure of a legitimate char-ter. Posseshing these attractions, it is not to be wondered at that they be-came favorites among the gentlemen, and that many of the young men of the city made it a habit to call upon them at their parent's home and agend pleasant evenings in their socie-ty. On the night above named, (Tuesday, of last week), two gentle-men, both well acquainted with the young ladies, and also their parent's made a call at the house. After the usual greetings, and under the priv-ilege gained by thorough friendship, the quartette became quite at home do, and the young ladies expressed themselves as equally daring. wounded list, with 63. The largest number of persons killed at one acti-dent was 21, heing upon the Missis-sippl Central Railroad, near Buckner, when a train upon the 25th of Febru-ary broke through a trestle bridge, and to which must be added 15 woun-ded. New York starts of in the fre-quency of her accidents, having had fourteen hy which lives were lost. New Jersey, it will be seen, has not been behind in deadly contest, hav ing had five fatal accidents by which ten lives were instantly lost, while the number of those mortally wound-ed is not ascertained, but goes to swell the list of forty six set against her on the list of injured. To these ghastly tables should be added the lives lost by the blowing up of our river and lake steamers, and the number then shown would indeed be startling.
