lickns have nominated Gen. N. P. Conje-nuau, a gentleman of education and abli-lity, and highly esteemed for his unsel-tish loyaity during our late war. If we shouldbare unfortunate as to lose Connecticut on Monday's election, nuch more work will, of course, have to be done to secure a Republican triumph in the District of Columbia. The Republi-nome house molective in the District hour. the District of Columnie. The Republi-cans have a mejority in the District how-ever, and but little fear is entertained as

o the result. In this city where Col. Forney has re-field so long and where his interests and attachments are so great, his ap-pointment as collector of the port at ntment as collector of the ladelphia, is almost universa pointment as collector of the port at Philadelphia, is almost universally con-sidered most worthy and proper. Since his withdrawal from the Democratic party nearly thirtoen years ago when the Republican party was in its infancy, fow, have done as much in the Republican cause as Col. John W. Forney, and it has been hoped by his friends here that President Grant would find it to the country's interest; and his pleasure, to retain him at the Nation's Capital as one of his confidential advisors. By invitation of General Crocker, Warden of the Prison in the District of Columbia, your correspondent witness-Warden of the Prison in the District of Columbia, your correspondent witness-ed, since my last, the execution of James Graily, for the murdler of a respectable aged lady of this city. The President had granted two respites through the earnest appeals of his friends and spiritual advisers. Much has been done during the respites by them' to in-the eresting the respites by them' to in-the eresting the transition of the But rente to the President's instinct to exe-cute the laws of the hand, after reforring true to the President's instituct to exo-cate the baws of the hand, after reforring the whole matter to his legal advisor, the Attorney (honoral, Executive elemency was refused. But to the execution. Now I first would say, that the way the old being was inurdered by Grady was so horrible and disgusting to the refined fortion of the community, I will consid-er it a nameless crime.

Notwithstanding the prisoner had con-versed receip with all who visited him and in every instance no fear of the gal-lowed was betrayed, it was thought that when the time arrived for his execution he would show the white feather—Not a young and heantiful lady last week with an abortion medicine. Wille there has, been a great many marders committed in Washington dur-ing the past few years, especially during the war, none before have suffered the ponalty of death. By some basic or crock all have escaped the gallows, and last few even have been punished with imprisonment. The morals of Washing-ton are certainly improving. The uew plastick Attorney, Judge Fisher and liss basistant Harrington, are infusing a split of reform in the mind of the poo-ple, and consequently it is not a difficult taverse to bringing in a vordict of guilty when there is sufficient ovidence to sus-tain such a verrict.

Those who do not know me may perhaps believe the following story. Those who do know me will not. Still it was quite true. Reginald was the Ohio before effectual pursuit could e made. Directly after the alarm was given Brady collected his chosen followers, and hastened in pursuit; but the In-dians having a day or more the start when the time arrived for his execution he would show the white feather—Not a bit of it. With a limer step than any odjer member of the party who seconded the scatfold, he with his hunds tied tightly behind him marched from his cell to the scatfold without the least manifestation of fear, and yountarially took position of fear, and yountarially took position of the trap through which he was to be haunched into enternity.
