Found Drewned.—On Monday last Coroner Corbus held an inquest on the body of an inknown boy found drowned in the Ohio river at Noas's Landiag, opposite Vanport. The body had apparently, been for some time in the water, and was that of a child some seven years of agy, and three feet and eight inches in height. It was clad in dark blue jean panta, nearly new, and red flannel shirt cut low in the neck. The pants were buttoned to the waist, and had guita percha buttons with elastics around die bottom of each leg. No shoes or socks ware found on either foot. The hair was dark and cut short, and a small sore was apparent upon the left leg mear the knee. The Coronier's Jiry returned a verdict of accidental drowning, and the orpse was buried upon the bank of the river where it lay.—Radical. croscopic operations necessary to detect the precise nature of almost every maiady with a positiveness amounting to more nearly mathematical precision than is possible in any other way. These investigations and the prescril ing of medicines in accordance with these facts has been the practical business of our life. So extensive has been our experience in these examinations during the last twenty years that scarcely a town or township within fifty miles of Pittsburgh but numbers a dozen or more of patrons who have thus sent to us and obtained relief. And knowing that hundreds of others are still lingering out a miserable exist ence without medical aid, some because they have passed through the "old or-deal" without relief, and some perhaps because they may not know where to apply to, we feel justified in making these facts public, satisfied that a number will seize upon these plain truths and be fully rewarded by a cure.
