CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATS. "No indignation can be too stern, and no scorn too severe, for the assertions, by unscrupulous Radical leaders, that the great Democratic and Conservative party of the Union has or can have sympathy with disorders or violence in any pathy with disorders or violence in any part of the country, or in the deprivation of any man of his rights under the Constitution." Thus exclaim fourteen Senators and ninety-five Representatives in Congress, Conservative Democrats, as they choose to call themselves.

Let us, for a moment, examine into their record as the conservators of the peace, defenders of human rights, and supporters of the constitution.

In pretended defense of liberty, the Democracy abolished all limitations upon, and by force of arms, attempted to establish slavery in all the National territory.

establish slavery in all the National territory.

The Republicans, through the power of a superior civilization, an inate love of justice and indominatable individual enterprise, proved the capacity of liberty

Conservative Democracy.

In deflance of a popular majority, the Conservative Democracy inaugurated rebellion, that the Union might be destroyed, and slavery perpetuated.

The Republicars sundued the rebellion, and restored the Union, that liberty might be national and everlasting.
For ten years the Conservative Democracy have persistently aimed to destroy, For ton years the Conservative Democracy have persistently aimed to destroy, whilst the Republicans have persistently and successfully aimed to reconstruct and re-establish liberty and the Union. Even now, while protending to acquiesce in our reconstructed nationality, the Conservative Democracy denounce, in terms of unmitigated corn, the basis upon which it is re-established, and express in words of loving sympathy, their cordial appreciation of the destructive rebel sentiment which provades every element of their party organism.

Conservative Democracy—Heaven swe the mark! It has been for fifteen years the synonym of destruction, nothing/more—nothing less. And yet, these 14 Senators and 95 fiftyresentatives roll the words as a sweet morsel under their tongues, and boldly and shamelessly flaunt their transparent falsehoods in the face of the American people.

Is it not apparent that the Conservative Democracy are the only destructives and the Radical Republicans the only practical Conservatives? Who, but the Democracy in the years that are past, or in the present, have sympathized with, or do sympathize with disorders and violence? Who, but the Conservative Democracy have endeavored, by all the means and appliances at command, to deprive a whole, race—four millions of citizens—of their rights? Who, but these same fourteen Senators and nine-ty-five Representatives, while the ink which fixed their names to the remarkable manifesto from which the above quotation is made, is yet wet, spoke and voted persistently in behalf of disorders and violence and to deprive millions of loyal and law abiding citizens of security in their rights under the Constitution?

It would devote itself to taking off or reducing fax after tax until the Transurr, was derived of until the Treasury was deprived of paying the interest on the National debt, and would hait the tidings of National bankruptcy with unalloyed gladness and unconceated exultation.

Whatever chastisement may be decembed for our National bankruptcy with the paying th served for our National sins, we must hope this humiliation and disgrace will be spared us."

The Annexation of Cuba. It appears that the Spanish Government is very desirouse of dispos-ng of Cuba to the United States. Her main object appears to be to get as large a sum as possible. Her first propsition to our minister, Goneral Sickles, was two hundred millions. The sum was then reduced fifty millions, and finally to one hundred millions. Some time ago Mr. Fish informed our minister that the Government could not at present entertain any proposition looking to the neonisition of that island acquisition of that island.

New York Growl at the Penn-[From the New York Democrat.]
The control of the New Jersey railroads adds immensely to the al ready overgrown power of the Penn-sylvania Railroad Company, and affords another remarkable illustra tion of the irresistible tendancy to ward railroad centralization The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, with a line only 480 miles long, now owns or controls connecting lines nearly 5,000 miles long. It recently swallowed the Union Pacific Railroad, and it now annexes the New Jersey lines. It has established through connections with and con-trols the trade between St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Chicago, Omaha, San Francisco; and the Atlantic ports of Philadelphia and New York. This company will also soon own the direct lines to New Orleans and all the chief cities of the South.
