THE Fifth Auditor of the United States, on Monday of last week, promoted Miss Helen Goodwin, of New York, Mrs. Susan O'Sullivan, of Massachusetts, and Miss J. E. Jennings, of Wisconsin, from copyists in his Department, to first class clerkships. They passed the same critical examinations as to their qualifications, to which male applicants for clerkships are subjected. Woman's rights are respected in the various Departments of the Government at Washington.

THE President has been officially notified that the young Russian Grand Duke Alexis will visit this country about the first of September. The fleet which is to convey his Imperial Highness to these shores, will land at the port of New York. eral of the prominent citizens of the metropolis have undertaken to give a reception to the Royal visitor in keeping with his high dignity, and that of the Empire State.

THE Democracy, as a general thing, do not take kindly to the New Departure" doctrine. In their State Conventions, just now, they have a good deal of wriggling, and usually no little cursing is done before they can be brought to assent to the adoption of a Republican platform in a Democratic meeting. Their qualmishnes, however, is generally over-come. Iowa furnishes the latest burgh express coming west over the Baitimore and Ohio Railroad yesterday morning, about a mile east of Glover's gap, ran over and instantly killed a young man of perhaps eighteen years of age and a child of five or six, which he was trying to rescue from danger. The young man was mending a fence not far from the track, and the child, whose brother he was, appears to have left the house with the intention of crossing the road and going to him. The child, when seen by the engineer was walking along beside the road at a safe distance. When the brother saw the road, and the seing its brother coming on the other side of the road, turned, with a strange fatality; and started to run across the track directly in front of the engine, to meet him. The brother sprang upon the track to snatch it away, and in an instant the locomotive was upon them' and they were crushed beneath its ponderous wheels. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and all went hack to wheels. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and all went back to see the sad spectacle. The child's body was dreadfully mangled, and the upper portion of the young man's head had been crushed completely away. The father and mother had come out to the roadside, and were bending over their dead children and uttering heart-piercing immentations. It was a scene to melt hearts of stone, and many were moved to tears. The and many were moved to tears. The engineer was much affected, and, har-dened by danger as may be suppos-ed, turned as white as a sheet when he looked upon the mangled remains. He is pronounced entirely blameless, as there was no time to stop the train, even if there had been reason to apprehend that the child would get upon the track. The name of the family our informant was not sure of, but he thought it was Sisson.

One Armstrong, a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, being asked by a farmer from the rural districts what this "talk of the new policy on the part of the Democracy meant," replied: "We propose to take the rotten eggs from under the old Democratic hen, upon which she has been setting for the last six years without hatching anything, and gave her a lot of fresh eggs out of which to batch a rousing victury."
