A Serious and Probably Fatal Accident.—An accident befel Mr. Jacob Bruce, a wealthy and highly esteemed old gentleman of Hopewell township, this county, on last Wednes day, which may result in the loss of his life. Th particulars, as they have been related to us are as obligate, to the day named, Mr. Bruce was riding form his farm to New Sheffield, and on the way met a neighbor, who was also on horseback. The two stopped and commenced a conversation, at about which time their horses began to fight. In trying to pill them away from eas hother the girth oil the saddle on Mr. Bruce's horse broke, and the old gentleman fell to the ground. Hostili held on to the brittle, and while doing so the horse step-jed upon this face, crushing it so badly as to burst one of his eyes. At last accounts his life was despate of.

The M. E. Church.-Bishop Morris, senior bishop of the M. E. Church, now residing in Springfield, Ohio, writes to a paper in New York on his seventyseventh birthday, and gives some intoresting facts respecting the history of the church to which he belongs. In 1813 whon he entered the ministry, there were no literary institutions in the church; now of the different classes, there are 101, with 100 teachers and 20,000 pupils. In 1817 there were but few houses of worship of any value; "now she is building over one church a day on an average, and more durable structures. She has aiready invested in churches and parsonages more than seven millions of dollars. There were in 1813, no Sabbath Schools in the M. E. Church now she has 10,012 Sabbath Schools, embracing 189, 12, 1233 scholars, with 1,759,122 volumes in her libraries." When he united with the church, her communicants were less than a quarter of a million; now, notwithstanding nearly one-half of her membership went into the M. E. Insurer To-Day.—"Procratination is the Thief of Time," and "Time is Money."
This putting off from day to day, produces a fatally false feeling of security, and finally theides of Insurance is abandoned. A man of immense wealth may, in one sense, dispense with insurance, but those of moderate or limited means cannot afford to have property swept away in an hour which has cost years to acquire.

OPPICIAL CIRCULAR No. L School Dar's, Omenan Schools, Harrisburg, June 1, 1871.

It he Principals and Managers of the Soldiers' Orphans' Schools and

The immediate attention of those interested is tasked to the following special directions:

1. All clothing for the pupils in the several institutions will hereafter be furnished by the principal or managers of the same, subject, as to its kind, quality and quantity, to the control of the Superintendent. Accounts for clothing, when presented for settlement, must be secompanied by sworn statements as to their accuracy.

2. All clothing to be purchased for the quarter commencing with the date hereof, will be substantially the same, in kind, as heretofore. Such changes as it shall be found advisable to make, will be made known in time to carry them into effect at the beginning of the quarter commencing September next.

3. All children now in the schools over sixteen years of age, and all others as soon as they-resch that age, must be promptly discharged. No exception can be made, under the present law, in favor of those who have been in the schools a less time than two years.

4. The yearling for the present year described who have been in the second a less time than two years.

4. The vacation for the present year will commence on Friday, July 28th, and continue until Friday, September 8th. The annual examination at the several schools will take place during the two or three weeks preceding the vacation.

the two or three weeks preceding the vacalion.

5. A meeting of principals, managers inspectors and others interested in the Soldiers' Orphan schools will be called at an early day at Harrisburg.

6. The Superintendent expects to be able to visit every institution in the Siste in which there are soldiers' orphan under instruction, before the coming vacation. Having prepared, in 1804, at the request of Governor Curtin, the original plan for the education and maintenance of soldiers' orphans, after which, in their main features, all subsequent plans have been modeled, he feels not only a formal or public, but a deep personal interest in the success of the system, and will do all in his power to promote it.

J. P. WICKERBHAN, Superintendent.

How to be Nobody .- The following rules are full of the severe irony of truth strictly obeyed they will secure to any boy or young man the bitterest failure or lament forever. Peter might have that his worst enemy could wish:

Spend your leisure time on a whisky barrel. Drink as much as you can pay for, or get others to pay for, or on credit.

Smoke cigars in the same ratio. Master the intrinsice of decrinose hilliaries.

Smoke cigars in the same ratio. Master the intricacies of dominosa, billiards, and cheuqers; above all things, make yourself an adept at card playing. Chess, the game of young intelligent men who foolishly desire to be somebody, you should eschew.

Don't read anything except the dime novels of the day. Cultivate an impression that all women like to be insuited, and that all men are thieves, If you should ever become conscious of a decent emotion—to which weakness, aiss! the most of us are liable at odd moments—crush it out with little impromptu blackgurdism, or drown it in a horn of whisky,

Make fun of your mother behind her back, and never think—because think—

Peter's ain was committed by a sur-prisal of a sudden temptation under a violent passion of fear and contrary to his settled purpose and resolution. Let Josus. Peter did not delay, like Paul, almost a twelve month to repent. He caught the pitying glance of Christ's eye,

The New Castle Guardian says: bort time since a child of Mr. Burto Alexander, in Shenango township, wa given a piece of sugar tied up in a rag about three or four inches wide and half a yard long. The child sucked the su-gar, and, having demolished it, accom-plished the feat of swallowing the rag. For several days the child was not expected to recover, all attempts to reach the rag having falled, but on Saturday week it was thrown up, and the little sufferer has now entirely recovered from the effects of the strange dose.

To Remove the Taste of Wood,

—A new keg, churn, bucket or other wooden vessel, will generally-communicate a disagreeable taste to anything that is put into it. To prevent this inconventence, scald the vessel with boiling water, letting the water remain in it until cold; then dissolve some pearlash or soda in lukewarm water, adding a little lime to it. Wash the inside of the vessel well with this solution. Afterward scald it well with bot water, and rinse with cold water before you use it. The reason of this is the ready combination of risinous matter with alkalies to form compounds soluble in alcohol.
