Connolly and Mayor Hall, a clear case of sucindling. That is the prop-er word to describe the transaction, and is indeed the only word, and therefore we have no hesitation in using it. If Mayor Hall and Controller Connolly object to being brand-ed as thieves and swindlers, as we once more brand them now, they can sue us for libel, and we will prove our charges in a court of law. What is more we will prove our charge by means of Controller nolly's own books. It will not do for Hall to try and sneak out by saying that he is "used to newspaper attacks." We do not attack him now on political grounds, or in wild language-but we call him a thief because we can prove him to be one. ----From the Philadelphia Post.
