This is not a mere assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are pre-pared by one of the ablest of German chemists. Unlike any other Bitters in the market, they are wholy free from spirit-uous logredhents. The objections which hold with so much force against prepara-tions of this class, hancly—that a desire of intoxicaling drinks is stimulated by their use are not valid in the case of the Geruse, are not valid in the case of the Ger nan Bitters. Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC has been specially prepared. It is intended for use where a slight alcoholic stimulent is required in connection with the well-known tonic proper ties of the pure German Bitters. This role con-tains all the ingredients of the Bitters, but so fla-vored as to remove the extreme bitterness. This preparation is not only palatable, but combines in modified form, all the virtues of the German Bit-ters. The solid extracts of some of Nature's choicest restoratives are held in solution by a spir-langour or excessive debility, where the system aby cars to have become exhausted of its energies. It was a controlation which she had dictated while so outwardly ablivious to the dictation that when she ended and awoke she had no memory at all of what she had jus done. The product of that strang and weird mood was a beautiful piec of English , not uncorthy of Macau lay; and to prove what I say, I ad duce the following eloquent passage which (I repeat) was published with out change as it fell from her uncon scious lips; "I ought not to pass unnoticed," she says!"your courteous and grace	thoughts swept like a whirlwind if through her mind, ending at last in the one predominant purpose; namely, to if reclaim her husband. She set her- elf religiously to this plous task, call- by ing on God and the spirits to be a	MIDNIGHT HOURS. MIDNIGHT HOURS. His spiritualistic habits he describes in a letter to his friend, the writer of this memorial, as follows: "Atra- bout 11 or 12 at night, two or three times a week, and sometimes with- bout nightly interval, Victoria and I hold parliament with the spirits. It is by this kind of study that we both have learned nearly all the valuable knowledge that we possess. Victor- a goes into a trance, during which her guardian spirit takes control of	death: "And looking upward, full of grace. He prayed, and, from a happy place, God's glory smote him on the face." In conversation, until she is some- what warmed with earnestness, she halts, as if her mind were elsewhere, but the moment she brings all her faculties to her lips for the full utter- ance of her message, whether it be of persuasion or indignation, and par- ticularly when under spiritual con- trol, she is a very orator for eloquence —pouring forth her sentences like a mountain stream, sweeping every- thing that free its flood	and many a one has been snatched from an untimely grave by heeding the salutary advice here recorded. Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure is the "sine gua non," of lung diseases, and the use of a single bottle will always do good, can never do harm, and will cure an ordinary cough in less than a day. Dr. Keyser's principal office for lung and other obstinate chronic diseases is 167 Liberty street, Pitts- burgh. If your druggist does not keep it send five dollars to Dr. Key- ser, and he will send four bottles se- our bayed by course of the full
