PRICE, $5.50. The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery. The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated:

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, within few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no seriews to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a priect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and cratily. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will-last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the shiution of sny fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkeichiel, are equally within the capacity of this LiTTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the last friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwidely, useless machines, which have signily tailed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a, wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it, is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon. In calling public attention to this little machine.
