Beaver, Pa., Nov. 29th, 1871. ALL sorts of rumors affecting the next Presidency are afloat just now. The last one we believe is to the effect that Charles Francis Adams of Massachusetts, (Rep.) is to be united pron by the anti-Grant wing of the Republican party, and nominated. The Democrats, in that event, will make no nomination but enter into his support and do all in their power to elect him. THE Senators and Representatives ing him that in Congress are making their way to the Capitol, and we presume by the 1st of December will all be there. A PARAGRAPH is going the rounds of the newspapers just now stating that the Chicago authorities have returned to the Emperor William of Prussia the One Thousand Thalers authorities did this or not, but we paragraph referred to, simply because the 1000 thaters sum up about $700 of our money and it is not likely that persons who are in destitute circumstances would turn this amount away, because of their belief that the giver could have given more. After all, it occurs to us that a private subscription of $700 by a person who lives in a foreign land, and whose generosity is no doubt taxed daily, is a contribution of which neither the German Emperor nor the Germans in this country need feel the least ashamed. Thousands of Americans, who are as wealthy as Emperor William, have not given half as much to the unfortunate sufferers in the west as he has.

If Jesse Smith make you sure of prosecuting file claim, then we command you, as heretofore, that you summon F. M. Manning, Leonard Mailory, M. C. Hill, John Forsyth, A. W. Brown, Samuel Kennedy, and William G. Beatty, by good and lawfol Summoners, so that they be and appear before our Judges at Beaver, at our County Count of Common Pleas there to be held the third Monday of March mext, to show wherefore.

enthusiastic when she called on her female hearers to pay no attention to what she called the "hollow unmeaning ceremony of marriage," but to declare themselves "Free Lovers," as she had done. The reverend preacher closed his address by warning his congregation against all doctrines so dangerous as those of Victoria Wood, hull and the Free Lovers.

David Paul Brown, of Philadelphia, writes Colonel Forney, has been for half a century the favorite orator of the American bar. His resolutely declined office, and rarely practiced in the courts of other States, his fame is mainly the outgrowth of professional efforts in his native city. He is still living in the flush of his manhood? Of middle hight, compactly made, with a full round chest; his forehead high to be done.

The True Benefits of Life Insurance,

It is time that those who seek the true benefits of Life Insurance should understand that Companies which strive to do the insrest business (and persistently ignore future liabilities,) are by no means the heat companies in which to insure.

It is the aim of the Officers and Directors of the Berksbire to do a safe, progressive business, which shall each year add to the strength and stability of the Company, and at the same time furriseh its members with more linsurance, larger Diridends, and greater advantages than can be resi-dends, and greater advantages than can be ted in any other Company.
