He had managed, to clovate himself in Mrs. White's estimation and to destroy Ralph at the same time, and had managed to do both by a contraction of the eyebrows. But the silence was growing painful, and Ralph thought to break it and turn the current of thought from himself by asking after Mrs. White's son.

"Where is Walter?" "Oh! Walter's doing well. He went down to Clifty three weeks ago to study medicine with Dr. Small He seems so buch an excellent man you know, and I have strong hopes that Wallie will be led to see the error of his ways by his association with Henry. I suppose he would have gone to see you but for the unfavorable reports that he heard. I hope, Ralpli, you too will make the friendship of Dr. Small. And for the sake of your poor, dead mother "—here Aunt Matilda endeavored to show some emotion-" for the sake of your poor, dead mother— But Ralph heard no more. The buckwheat-cakes had lost their flavor. He remembered that the colt had not yet had his onts and so, in the very midst of more good than any sermon I ever heard to see that bey in his mother's arms to-morrow. We can keep the old lady over Sunday."

Ralph was delighted, so delighted that he can a man a bath good Miss Nahey Saweer whose blate itee was gierified

by her generoity.

But he did not go to the poor-house immediately. He waited until he saw Bill Jones, the Superintendent of the Poor-House; and Pete Jones, the County Commissioner, who was sill somewhat shuck up, ride up to the court house. Then he drove out off the village, and presently hitched his horse to the poor-house fence, and took a survey of the outside. Forty hogs, nearly ready for slaughter, wallowed is a pen in front of the forlorn and dilapidated house; for though the commissioners allowed a chim for repairs at lower meeting the petual quarreling and occasional fight

In the quarters devoted to the insane, people slightly demonstal and raving manage were in the same rooms, while there were also those after recks which sat in heaps on the flow, mumbling and muttering, unintelligible words, the whole current of their thoughts hopelessly muddled, turning around upon itself in eddies never ending.

"That air woman," said the weak-eyed any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt don't make no furss now, but list sets down that a way all day, and keeps down that a way all day, and keeps a whisperiut. Talpin indesseed to When she came in she was the victim of mania; but she had been beaten into hopeless idiocy. Indeed this state of incurable imbecility seemed the end toward which all traveled. Shut in these base rooms, with no ed. Shut in these base rooms, with no treatment, an exercise, to variety, and metier, food, cases of slight derangement soon grew into chronic lunacy. One young woman, called Phil, a sweet faced person, apparently a farmer's wife, eame up to Ralph and looked, at him kindly, playing with the buttons on his coat in a child-like simplicity. Her blue drilling dress was sewed all over with natches of white, representing orwith patches of white, representing orwith places of with a sweetness of home?" she said with a sweetness of home?" she said with a sweetness and a wistful, longing, home-sick look, that touched Ralph to the heart. He looked at her, and then at the muttering crones, and he could see no hope of any better late for her. She followed him round the barn-like rooms, returning every now and then to her question, "Don't you think I might go home The weak-eyed girl had been cal away for a moment, and Ralph stood looking into a cell, where there was a inare with a gay red plume in his hat and a strip of red flannel about his waist. geant, !! !!!!am General Andrew Jackson," he

"People don't believe it, but I duena Vista, and the new one that grow ed on isn't nigh so good as the old one; it's point on one side. That's why they take advantage of the to shut me up. But I know some things, My head is point on one side, but it's all right on the l'other. And when I know a thing it. Lean down here. Let me tell you some thing out of the left. Not out of the po-tato side, mind ye. I wouldn't a-told you if he hadn't locked me up for noth-ing. Bill Jones is a thief! He sells the bodies of the death paupers, and then won't hurt," said Hartsook, pushing open the door. But the volley of blaspheny and the vile language that he received made him stagger. The old hag paced the floor, abusing everybody that paced the floor, abusing everybody that came in her way. And by the window, in the same room, feeling the light that struggled through the dusty glass upon her face, sat a sorywfal, intelligent English woman. Ralph hoticed that she was English at once, and in a few moments he discovered that her sight was defective. Until it be that Hanwally worther was the room-make of this nah's mother was the room-mate of this loathsome creature, whose profanity and bscenity did not interfult for a moment Happily the weak-eyed girl had not to brave the curses of Mowley. Ralph stepped forward to the woman t the window, and greeten her.

"Is this Mis. Thomson?" "That is my name, sir," she said, turn-ing her face toward Ralph, who could not but remark the contrast between the thorough relinement of her manner and "I saw your daughter yesterday."

"Did you see my boy ?"
There was a tremulousness in her voice and an agitation in her manner, which disclosed the emotion she strove in vain to conceal. For only the day before Bill Jones had informed her that Shocky would be bound out on Sunday, and that she would find that goin agin him warn't a paying business, 130 much as some others he mout mention.

Ralph told her about Shocky's safety shall not write down the conversation here. Critics would say that it was a overwrought scene. As if all the world were as cold as they! All fliat I can tell is that this refined woman had all she could do to control berself in her cagerness to get out of her prison-house, away from biasphemies of Mowley, away from the insults of Jones, away from the sights and sounds and smalls of the place, and, above all, her engerness to place, and, above all, her eagerness to ily to the little shocky-head from whom she had been banished for two years: It seemed to her that she could gladly die now, if she could die with that flaxer head upon her bosoln.

And so, in spite of the opposition of Bill Jones's son, who threatened her with every sort of evil if she left. Ralph wrapped Mrs. Thompson's blue drilling in every sort of evil if she left. Raiph wrap-ped Ars. Thompson's blue drilling in Nancy Sawyer's shawl, and borothe fee-ble woman off to Low.sburg. And as they drove away, a sad, child-like voice cried from the gratings of the upper win-dow, "Good-bye! good-bye!" Raiph turned and saw that it was Phil, poor Phil, for whom there was no deliverance. And all the way back Raiph pronounce And all the way back Ralph pronounced mental maledictions on the Dorcas Society, not for sending garments to the Five Points or the South Sea Islands whichever it was, but for being so blind to the sorrow and poverty within its reach. He did not know, for he had not

THE TRIBUNE: FOR 1872. The consolidation of Italy, so long fragnentary and important, into one powersulfact, with Rome as its applial; the numilation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the slege tropolis; the expulsion of the Hourbons troin the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal arriging royal houses the virtual allsorption of the kingdoms of Baxony, Handover, Bayaria, with Baden, Resse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, luto the triumphant and power the forlorn and dilapidated house; for the forlorn and dilapidated house; for the forlorn and dilapidated house and the commissioners allowed a cleaning the commissioners allowed a cleaning the commissioners allowed a cleaning the commissioners allowed a mining of Russia to reassert her preponders were never inade, and it would not do to scrutinize Mr. Jones's bills too closely, unless you gave up all hope of a reflormation to office. One ourlous offect of political aspirations in Hoopole cousty, was to shut the eyes that they could not see, and to does the ears that they could not hear, and to destroy the sense of smell. But Raibh, not being a politician, smelled the beg pen without and the stench within, and say he did not wish to make his business known at once, he affected a sort of idle interest in the place, and asked to be allowed to look around. The week goed girl watched him. He found that all the worden with children, twenty perfect words in all, were obliged to sleep in one room, which, owing to the hill-slope, was partly under ground, and which had but half a window for light, and no venitation, except the change draft from the door. Jones had declared that the word warn't goin't to have bords a running of Russia to reassert her prepondents the choldren, twenty perfect to also in one had declared that the word warn't goin't to have bords a running of Russia to reassert her prepondents the counties, of the counties of t ful empire of North Germany , and the wine Providence in all that proceeds and fore last he was the immediate death of is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict nine raccoons, and how many opossums

To this beneficent and vitally needed reform THE TRIBUXE WIll devote its Lest energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to oftice as of all New Departures the most es-Sential and auspicious. The virtual surrender by the Demo cratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights regardless of Color has, divested our current politics of half, their by-gone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is glear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be solely regarded as practically saccopted by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and sinews-the equality of all citizens before the law the inhilling of a State to enslave any pertion of its people every citizen the full enjoyment of his New Corn, . liberty until he fortests it by crime-such are the broad and firm foundations of our National edifice; and falsied be the hand that shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emangipation, and may fairly invoke thercon the sternest judgement of Man

there is nothing to supply. No one has provisions or money. What provisions there were in the city are hurned or caten! A few people have enough for a day or two, not longer. Provisions are arriving, but are distributed as sistas possible. Twenty dead hodies have been taken to the station on the Northiside. At present it is impossible to know who they are. As slight comes in the wort of gas is keenly felt. There are fay candles in the city, and no water except what is taken from the Lake. Great fears of theves are felt on the West side; and figurent posts to keep order. All business and work are atspended, and every one is occupied in obtaining something to est and places of shelter. The suffering on the Northiside are heart rending. Fifty thorhand men, women and children are huddled together like so many animals. Seventeen thousand Germans and litch are praying for relied. Helaless children are asking to rive and from heart-broken parents who know not which way to turn, not to do, except to await supplies which must be slow in coming, as there is part of the burnt district where is is almost impossible to travel. Patients had been taken from beds of sickness to save lives, which were nearly spent, were all exposed to the rain last night and the cold raw winds to day. Several deaths have occurred at Lancoln Park. Another night must be spent in Lincoln Parkaned the brick fields of Division street, and yet another. Trains and extras are loaded to their failest capacity in taking people away, who in many instances have no place to go to, but, yet capnod say here, and each train leaves five times as many passengers as it takes also. The "Evening Journal" got out half a sheet to-night, and other papers will follow to-morrow.
